About These Rules

Definitions

Words and phrases that have defined meanings in these rules are collected in the Appendix [\[Definitions\]](#) to these rules.

Organization

There are 15 Parts, 3 Schedules, and one Appendix to the Alberta Rules of Court. These rules govern the practice and procedure in civil proceedings in the Court of King's Bench and the Court of Appeal. Surrogate Rules can be found in Surrogate Rules (AR 130/95).

Generally speaking, the Parts are organized in the same sequence as a legal action in Court proceedings, although rules for service of documents are in Part 11 [\[Service of Documents\]](#), and some of the more technical rules are collected in Part 13 [\[Technical Rules\]](#).

Here is an overview of each Part of the rules, the Schedules, and the Appendix:

Part 1 [\[Foundational Rules\]](#) contains the philosophy underlying the rules through purpose and intention statements. This is followed by rules about the general authority of the Court over practice and procedure and the remedies the Court may provide. The Part also describes how the rules are to be interpreted.

The foundational rules are critical to the interpretation of everything else in the rules.

Part 2 [\[The Parties to Litigation\]](#) includes rules related to Court actions involving personal representatives, trustees, partnerships and other entities. There are also rules for when a litigation representative must be appointed and the responsibilities of lawyers of record.

Part 3 [\[Court Actions\]](#) – Division 1 describes the process for starting Court actions and where to start them. Court actions are typically started either by filing in Court a statement of claim or an originating application. Division 2 describes the process for actions started by originating application, including originating applications for judicial review. Division 3 describes the process for actions started by statement of claim, defending them, making counterclaims and third party claims. Division 4 deals with obtaining more particulars about a claim and amendments to and close of pleadings, and Division 5 deals with significant deficiencies in claims and pleadings. Division 6 includes rules for joining or separating claims and parties and changes to parties.

Part 4 [\[Managing Litigation\]](#) puts the responsibility for managing litigation started by statement of claim on the parties to a legal action and creates a framework for doing that. Court assistance is available to move the case along, including management of an action by a case management judge.

For most actions started by statement of claim, the parties must attempt to resolve the dispute through a dispute resolution process before obtaining a trial date. The rules recognize judicial dispute resolution as one means of resolving litigation without a full trial.

Part 4 also includes processes to obtain an order to secure payment of a costs award and a formal process to settle legal actions designed to ensure careful consideration of offers of settlement. Divisions 6 and 7 deal with delay in Court proceedings, and transfer and transmission of interests respectively.

Part 5 [Disclosure of Information] describes the information that must be disclosed by the parties to a Court action to each other, and when and how the parties may question each other about the case. Early disclosure of facts and admissions help parties to evaluate the case and can facilitate early resolution of the dispute. This Part also deals with expert reports and medical examinations by health care professionals.

Part 6 [Resolving Issues and Preserving Rights] includes rules for making applications to the Court (also known as interlocutory applications) to obtain Court directions or to resolve issues arising during the course of a Court action. The Part also includes

- rules for obtaining evidence outside Alberta,
- orders for the protection and inspection of property, and
- rules respecting replevin orders and interpleader proceedings.

Part 7 [Resolving Claims Without a Trial] includes rules for applying for summary judgment. The Part also includes a mechanism for the Court to resolve particular issues or questions that can help expedite or resolve a claim; for example, deciding a question of law.

Part 8 [Trial] contains rules for scheduling a trial date and the conduct of a trial. The Part also includes rules relating to civil jury trials and streamlined trials.

Part 9 [Judgments and Orders] includes rules for preparing, entering and enforcing the Court's judgments and orders, and for registration of judgments and orders from reciprocating jurisdictions.

Part 10 [Lawyer's Charges, Recoverable Costs of Litigation and Sanctions]. This Part includes rules for the review of retainer agreements between a lawyer and client, a lawyer's charges, and contingency fee agreements by a review officer. The Part then deals with how the costs of litigation are assessed by the Court or by an assessment officer. Processes are included to appeal the decisions of review officers and assessment officers to a judge.

The Part also deals with sanctions for contravention of these rules and the circumstances that could cause the Court to declare a person in civil contempt of Court.

Part 11 [Service of Documents] sets out the rules for how documents starting an action, called commencement documents, and other documents must be served inside and outside Alberta, together with rules for validating service, substitutional service, setting aside service and proof of service.

Part 12 [Family Law Rules] sets out the rules for family law matters. The Part applies to proceedings under the Divorce Act, the Family Law Act, the Family Property Act, the Matrimonial Property Act, the Protection Against Family Violence Act, the Extra-provincial Enforcement of Custody Orders Act, and to family law matters under the Change of Name Act and the Law of Property Act. The Part also applies to restraining orders and to actions for unjust enrichment in the family law context.

Unless a different procedure is specified in Part 12, the other Parts of the Rules also apply to family law matters. The Part is divided into Divisions which correspond to the other Parts of the Rules, so that one can quickly identify any exceptions which apply to family law matters.

Part 13 [Technical Rules] contains rules about calculating time, pleadings and amendments to them, affidavits, exhibits, payments into and out of Court, certifying copies of documents, payment of fees and allowances and various administrative matters related to the court clerk and other Court officers.

Part 14 [Appeals] governs appeals to the Court of Appeal.

Part 15 [Transitional Provisions and Coming Into Force] deals with issues to provide for a smooth transition to the new rules.

There are 3 Schedules to the rules:

- Schedule A [Forms] includes forms prescribed by the rules for use under the rules,
- Schedule B [Court Fees and Witness and Other Allowances] prescribes Court fees payable and allowances payable to witnesses, jurors and experts, and
- Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees] sets out a series of fees for services performed in a legal action to which reference may or will be made by the Court or an assessment officer.

The Appendix [Definitions] to the rules contains words and phrases that have defined meanings in the rules.

Overview summaries and information notes

The rules contain two unique features. The first is a series of boxed notes titled What this Part is about on the title page of each Part of the rules. These notes give a summary explanation of what the Part is about.

The second unique feature is the highlighted Information notes. You are reading one now. Information notes are simply signposts to indicate other information or rules that the reader may find helpful.

Neither the overviews nor the information notes have any legal effect.

Numbering system

The rules are divided, numbered and named in the following way:

- rules that relate to a particular subject area are grouped into Parts with a number assigned to each Part, for example
 - Part 3 [Court Actions]

- Part 4 [Managing Litigation]
- Part 8 [Trial];
- each Part consists of a series of rules numbered first with the Part number and then consecutively; for example, in Part 5 the rules are numbered 5.1, 5.2, 5.3 and so on;
- if a particular rule is divided into 2 or more identifiable sentences, subrules are created with numbers in brackets; for example: 5.1(1), (2), (3);
- if a rule or subrule is divided,
 - the rule is split into clauses, using lowercase letters in brackets, for example: 3.25(a), (b), (c), and in the case of a subrule, 5.1(1)(a), (b), (c), and
 - the rule can be further divided into subclauses, using roman numerals in brackets, for example, 3.24(a)(i), (ii), (iii), and in the case of a subrule, 5.1(1)(a)(i), (ii), (iii).

Part 1: Foundational Rules

Division 1 Purpose and Intention of These Rules

What these rules do

1.1(1) These rules govern the practice and procedure in

- (a) the Court of King's Bench of Alberta, and
- (b) the Court of Appeal of Alberta.

(2) These rules also govern all persons who come to the Court for resolution of a claim, whether the person is a self-represented litigant or is represented by a lawyer.

AR 124/2010 s1.1;218/2022

Purpose and intention of these rules

1.2(1) The purpose of these rules is to provide a means by which claims can be fairly and justly resolved in or by a court process in a timely and cost-effective way.

(2) In particular, these rules are intended to be used

- (a) to identify the real issues in dispute,
- (b) to facilitate the quickest means of resolving a claim at the least expense,
- (c) to encourage the parties to resolve the claim themselves, by agreement, with or without assistance, as early in the process as practicable,
- (d) to oblige the parties to communicate honestly, openly and in a timely way, and
- (e) to provide an effective, efficient and credible system of remedies and sanctions to enforce these rules and orders and judgments.

(3) To achieve the purpose and intention of these rules the parties must, jointly and individually during an action,

- (a) identify or make an application to identify the real issues in dispute and facilitate the quickest means of resolving the claim at the least expense,
- (b) periodically evaluate dispute resolution process alternatives to a full trial, with or without assistance from the Court,
- (c) refrain from filing applications or taking proceedings that do not further the purpose and intention of these rules, and
- (d) when using publicly funded Court resources, use them effectively.

(4) The intention of these rules is that the Court, when exercising a discretion to grant a remedy or impose a sanction, will grant or impose a remedy or sanction proportional to the reason for granting or imposing it.

Division 2 Authority of the Court

General authority of the Court to provide remedies

1.3(1) The Court may do either or both of the following:

- (a) give any relief or remedy described or referred to in the Judicature Act;
- (b) give any relief or remedy described or referred to in or under these rules or any enactment.

(2) A remedy may be granted by the Court whether or not it is claimed or sought in an action.

Procedural orders

1.4(1) To implement and advance the purpose and intention of these rules described in rule 1.2 [Purpose and intention of these rules] the Court may, subject to any specific provision of these rules, make any order with respect to practice or procedure, or both, in an action, application or proceeding before the Court.

(2) Without limiting subrule (1), and in addition to any specific authority the Court has under these rules, the Court may, unless specifically limited by these rules, do one or more of the following:

- (a) grant, refuse or dismiss an application or proceeding;
- (b) set aside any process exercised or purportedly exercised under these rules that is
 - (i) contrary to law,
 - (ii) an abuse of process, or
 - (iii) for an improper purpose;
- (c) give orders or directions or make a ruling with respect to an action, application or proceeding, or a related matter;
- (d) make a ruling with respect to how or if these rules apply in particular circumstances or to the operation, practice or procedure under these rules;
- (e) impose terms, conditions and time limits;
- (f) give consent, permission or approval;
- (g) give advice, including making proposals, providing guidance, making suggestions and making recommendations;

- (h) adjourn or stay all or any part of an action, application or proceeding, extend the time for doing anything in the proceeding, or stay the effect of a judgment or order;
 - (i) determine whether a judge is or is not seized with an action, application or proceeding;
 - (j) include any information in a judgment or order that the Court considers necessary.
- (3) A decision of the Court affecting practice or procedure in an action, application or proceeding that is not a written order, direction or ruling must be
- (a) recorded in the court file of the action by the court clerk, or
 - (b) endorsed by the court clerk on a commencement document, filed pleading or filed document or on a document to be filed.

Rule contravention, non-compliance and irregularities

1.5(1) If a person contravenes or does not comply with any procedural requirement, or if there is an irregularity in a commencement document, pleading, document, affidavit or prescribed form, a party may apply to the Court

- (a) to cure the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity, or
 - (b) to set aside an act, application, proceeding or other thing because of prejudice to that party arising from the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity.
- (2) An application under this rule must be filed within a reasonable time after the applicant becomes aware of the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity.
- (3) An application under this rule may not be filed by a party who alleges prejudice as a result of the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity if that party has taken a further step in the action knowing of the prejudice.
- (4) The Court must not cure any contravention, non-compliance or irregularity unless
- (a) to do so will cause no irreparable harm to any party,
 - (b) in doing so the Court imposes terms or conditions that will
 - (i) eliminate or ameliorate any reparable harm, or
 - (ii) prevent the recurrence of the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity,
 - (c) in doing so the Court imposes a suitable sanction, if any, for the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity, and
 - (d) it is in the overall interests of justice to cure the contravention, non-compliance or irregularity.

(5) The Court must not cure any contravention, non-compliance or irregularity if to do so would have the effect of extending a time period that the Court is prohibited from extending.

(6) If an order is made under this rule, the Court may also impose a penalty under rule 10.49 [Penalty for contravening the rules].

AR 124/2010 s1.5;128/2015

Information note

Other rules may contain specific methods to resolve some contraventions, non-compliance or irregularities, for example

- rule 3.68 [Court options to deal with significant deficiencies]
- rule 3.73 [Incorrect parties are not fatal to actions]
- rule 10.53(1)(d) [Punishment for civil contempt of court]
- rule 11.27 [Validating service].

In addition, rule 9.15 [Setting aside, varying and discharging judgments and orders] is available.

Most time periods in the rules may be varied under rule 13.5 [Variation of time periods].

The Court may also consider a contravention of the rules, non-compliance or irregularity in making a costs award under rule 10.33(2) [Court considerations in making a costs award].

Changes to these rules

1.6(1) The judges of the Court of King's Bench and the Court of Appeal may alter and amend any of these rules or make additional rules.

(2) The Rules of Court Committee under the Judicature Act is, for the assistance of readers of these rules, authorized to delete, amend or create new information notes or overview summaries, or both.

AR 124/2010 s1.6;218/2022

(3) An individual partner whether or not served with a notice under this rule may defend the action separately from the partnership.

Information note

Under rule 9.23(2) [Enforcement against partners' and partnership property] an order against a partnership using the partnership name may also be enforced against a person served with notice under this rule, if the order so provides. If notice is not served under this rule, an order against a partnership using the partnership name may still be enforced against a partner but only with the Court's permission and only if the conditions listed in 9.23(3) are met.

Disclosure of partners

2.4(1) If an action is brought by or against a partnership in the partnership name, any other party may serve a notice to disclose requiring the partnership to disclose in writing the names of all the partners constituting the partnership at a time specified in the notice, and their current addresses.

(2) The partnership must comply with or dispute the notice to disclose within 10 days after service of the notice on the partnership.

(3) If the partnership disputes the relevance of the time specified in the notice to disclose, the partnership may apply to the Court to determine the matter, in which case the onus is on the partnership to show why the information should not be disclosed.

(4) If the present address of a partner is unknown, the partnership must disclose the last known address of the partner.

Actions by and against sole proprietors

2.5(1) If a person carries on business or operates as a sole proprietor under a name other than the person's name, the person may bring or be the subject of an action in that name.

(2) If an action is brought by or against a person in the person's business or operating name, a party may serve a notice requiring the person to disclose, in writing, the legal name of the person carrying on the business or operation.

(3) The person on whom the notice to disclose is served must comply with it within 10 days after the date the notice is served.

Class proceedings practice and procedure

2.9 Despite any other provision of these rules, the Court may order any practice and procedure it considers appropriate for a class proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act to achieve the objects of that Act.

2.10 On application, a Court may grant status to a person to intervene in an action subject to any terms and conditions and with the rights and privileges specified by the Court.

Court approval of settlement, discontinuance, and abandonment of actions

2.19 Unless a litigation representative has express authority under an instrument, order or enactment to settle, discontinue or abandon an action, the litigation representative may do so only with the Court's approval.

AR 124/2010 s2.23;36/2020

Information note

Under section 106(1) of the Legal Profession Act assistance permitted by this rule must fall short of “acting as a barrister or solicitor” or “commencing, carrying on or defending an action or proceeding before a court or judge on behalf of another person”.

Division 4 Lawyer of Record

2.28(1) A party may change the party's lawyer of record or may self-represent by

- (a) serving a notice of the change in Form 3 on every other party and on the lawyer or former lawyer of record, and

Service after lawyer ceases to be lawyer of record

Withdrawal after trial date scheduled

2.31 After a trial date is scheduled, a lawyer of record may not, without the Court's permission, serve a notice of withdrawal as lawyer of record and any notice of withdrawal that is served without the Court's permission has no effect.

Information note

(4) An order under this rule applies until a notice is given under rule 2.28 [Change in lawyer of record or self-representation] or 2.29 [Withdrawal of lawyer of record] or the Court otherwise orders.

(5) Nothing in this rule prevents a party from serving a notice of change of lawyer of record or notice that the party intends to self-represent.

Part 3: Court Actions

What this Part is about: This Part describes the documents to be used to start and defend Court actions and the options that parties have during Court proceedings.

The Part begins by describing how Court actions are started (either by a statement of claim or by an originating application) and in which Court office the commencement document must be filed to start the Court action.

The rules then describe the requirements for originating applications and the specific rules for originating applications for judicial review, which is the process used to challenge a decision, act or omission of a person or body.

The Part then deals with actions started by statement of claim, time limits for serving the commencement document and the options that the defendant has.

The Part describes how a defence to a statement of claim is filed and served and the reply to the defence, and what happens if no defence is filed.

The Part also describes how to make a claim against a co-defendant, a third party claim, and a counterclaim, how to request more particulars about a claim and how documents filed in Court (called pleadings) can be amended.

The Part then deals with what happens if there are significant deficiencies in a claim or pleading and ends by describing how parties to a Court action can be joined, separated or changed.

Information note

The rules about the contents of statements of claim, defence and other related documents (called pleadings), and rules for affidavits are contained in Part 13 [Technical Rules]. Rules for contents of originating applications are in rule 3.8 [Originating applications and associated evidence] and rule 3.15 [Originating application for judicial review].

Rule 3.12 [Application of statement of claim rules to originating applications] may be applicable for issues under rule 3.2(3), (4) and (5).

Determining the appropriate judicial centre

3.3(1) The appropriate judicial centre for the purpose of these rules is

- (a) the closest judicial centre, by road, to the Alberta residences or Alberta places of business of all the parties, or
- (b) if a single judicial centre cannot be determined under clause (a), the judicial centre that is, by road, the closest to the Alberta residence or Alberta place of business of one of the parties, that party being selected by the party starting the action.
- (2) If a party carries on business in more than one Alberta location, the place of business in Alberta of that party for the purpose of this rule is the place of business that is nearest to the location at which the matters in issue in the action arose or were transacted.
- (3) Despite subrules (1) and (2), the parties may agree on a judicial centre in which to start and carry on the action, in which case the judicial centre agreed on by the parties is the appropriate judicial centre unless the Court otherwise orders.

Claim for possession of land

3.4(1) Despite rule 3.3 [Determining the appropriate judicial centre], if possession of land is claimed in a statement of claim that was not filed in

- (a) the judicial centre that is closest, by road, to the land, or
- (b) the judicial centre that is closest, by road, to the Alberta residence of a defendant,

a defendant may, by making a request in Form 6, require the court clerk in the judicial centre in which the action is located to transfer the action to the judicial centre that is closest, by road, to the land or the Alberta residence of that defendant.

(2) The request must

- (a) name the judicial centre to which the action is to be transferred, and
- (b) give the reason for the transfer.

(3) The request must

- (a) be filed before close of pleadings in the judicial centre in which the action is located, and
- (b) be served on each of the other parties.

(4) A person served under subrule (3) who wishes to object to the request for the transfer of the action must file an objection within 10 days and serve it on the defendant who made the request.

(5) If no objection has been filed and served on the defendant who made the request by the end of the 10-day period referred to in subrule (4), the defendant may confirm the request with the court clerk and the court clerk must transfer the action.

(6) This rule does not apply if

- (a) the Court has issued an order directing that the action be started in or transferred to a particular judicial centre,
- (b) the parties agree that an action start in or be transferred to a particular judicial centre, or
- (c) the action has already been transferred to a judicial centre by a request under this rule.

Information note

Close of pleadings is a time determined under rule 3.67 [Close of pleadings].

Transfer of action

3.5 The Court may order that an action be transferred from one judicial centre to another

- (a) if the Court is satisfied that it would be unreasonable for the action to be carried on in the judicial centre in which it is located, or
- (b) at the request of the parties.

Where an action is carried on

3.6(1) An action must be

- (a) carried on in the judicial centre in which the statement of claim or originating application was filed, or
- (b) if the action is transferred in accordance with rule 3.4 [Claim for possession of land] or rule 3.5 [Transfer of an action], continued in the judicial centre to which the action is transferred, and all subsequent documents in the action must be titled accordingly.

(2) Despite subrule (1), an application and an originating application may be heard or a trial may be held in any place specified by the Court other than the judicial centre.

Post-judgment transfer of action

3.7(1) After judgment or an order has been entered in a judicial centre, a judgment creditor, on notice to each of the other parties, may request a temporary transfer of the action to a different judicial centre for purposes of an application to enforce the judgment or order.

(2) An order granting a temporary transfer of an action under subrule (1), and any order resulting from an application referred to in subrule (1), must be filed in the judicial centre from which the action has temporarily been transferred.

Information note

For enforcement of judgments and orders see Part 9 [Judgments and Orders].

Notice of extension of time for service

3.29 If a statement of claim is served within an extension of time for service permitted by the Court under rule 3.26 [Time for service of statement of claim] or rule 3.27 [Extension of time for service], when it is served the statement of claim must be accompanied with

Judgment for recovery of property

3.38 Subject to rule 3.41 [When no defence is filed in a foreclosure action], if a statement of claim includes a claim for the recovery of property and one or more defendants do not file a statement of defence or demand for notice, the plaintiff may enter judgment against that defendant or those defendants for the recovery of that property, and the plaintiff is entitled to a costs award.

Judgment for debt or liquidated demand

3.39(1) If a statement of claim includes a claim for a debt or a liquidated demand, with or without interest, whether as debt or damages, and one or more defendants do not file a statement of defence or demand for notice in response to that claim or any part of it, the plaintiff

Division 4
Request for Particulars,
Amendments to Pleadings and Close of Pleadings

Request for particulars

(2) If the requesting party does not receive a sufficient response within 10 days after the date on which the request is served, the requesting party may apply to the Court for an order requiring the party who served the pleading to provide the particulars.

(3) If the Court orders particulars to be provided, it must specify a time within which the order is to be complied with.

(4) Subject to any order, despite a request for particulars, the obligation under these rules to file and serve pleadings continues even though a request for particulars has been made and whether or not it has been complied with.

Amending pleading

3.62(1) A party may amend the party's pleading, including an amendment to add, remove, substitute or correct the name of a party, as follows:

- (a) before pleadings close, any number of times without the Court's permission;

- (5) If a party has pleaded in response to a pleading that is subsequently amended and served on that party and the party does not file and serve a further response to the amended pleading, the party is assumed to rely on the party's unamended pleading in response to the amended pleading referred to in subrule (3).
- (6) This rule does not apply to amendments to a class proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act.

AR 124/2010 s3.62;163/2010;143/2011

Information note

Rule 2.7 [Amendments to pleadings in class proceedings] says that after a certification order is made in a class proceeding, pleadings in a class proceeding may be amended only with the Court's permission.

3.63(1) Unless the Court otherwise orders, if a party amends a pleading, a new pleading must be filed, being a copy of the original pleading as amended.

- (2) The amendment must
- (a) be dated and identified, and each amended version must be identified, and
 - (b) be endorsed by the court clerk in the following form:
Amended on [date] by [order] [party consent]
Dated . . .

AR 124/2010 s3.63;143/2011

Information note

Where a previously amended pleading is further amended, only the last amendment need be identified.

Time limit for application to disallow amendment to pleading

3.64(1) On application, the Court may disallow an amendment to a pleading or a part of it.

(2) The application must be filed within 10 days after service on the applicant of the amended pleading.

Permission of Court to amendment before or after close of pleadings

3.65(1) Subject to subrule (5), before or after close of pleadings, the Court may give permission to amend a pleading.

(2) If the Court gives permission for a pleading to be amended, the Court must specify the time period within which the amended pleading must be filed and served.

(3) An order giving permission to amend a pleading under this rule ceases to have effect unless the amended pleading is filed and served within the time specified by the Court.

(4) If the Court directs or allows a pleading to be amended at trial,
(a) the amendment must be recorded in writing by the court clerk, and
(b) no order need be filed.

(5) This rule does not apply to an amendment to a pleading to add, remove, substitute or correct the name of a party to which rule 3.74 [Adding, removing or substituting parties after close of pleadings] applies.

Costs

3.66(1) Subject to subrule (2), the costs, if any, as a result of an amendment to a pleading are to be borne by the party filing the amendment unless

- (a) the amendment is a response to an amended pleading, or
- (b) the Court otherwise orders.

(2) The costs of a contested application to amend a pleading are in the discretion of the Court, in accordance with rule 10.29 [General rule for payment of litigation costs].

AR 124/2010 s3.66;122/2012

Close of pleadings

3.67(1) This rule applies to pleadings between the following:

- (a) a plaintiff and a defendant;
- (b) a plaintiff-by-counterclaim and a defendant-by-counterclaim;
- (c) a third party plaintiff and a third party defendant;
- (d) a plaintiff and a third party defendant.

(2) Pleadings close when

- (a) a reply is filed and served by a plaintiff, plaintiff-by-counterclaim or third party plaintiff, as the case may be, or
- (b) the time for filing and serving a reply expires, whichever is earlier.

(3) The close of pleadings against one party represents the close of pleadings against all parties to that pleading.

Information note

The time for filing and service of a reply is covered in earlier rules in this Part. For example, rule 3.33 [Reply to a defence] requires the plaintiff's reply to be filed and served on the defendant within 10 days after service of the statement of defence on the plaintiff. See also rule 3.54(2) [Plaintiff's reply to third party defence].

Division 5 Significant Deficiencies in Claims

Court options to deal with significant deficiencies

3.68(1) If the circumstances warrant and a condition under subrule (2) applies, the Court may order one or more of the following:

- (a) that all or any part of a claim or defence be struck out;
- (b) that a commencement document or pleading be amended or set aside;
- (c) that judgment or an order be entered;
- (d) that an action, an application or a proceeding be stayed.

(2) The conditions for the order are one or more of the following:

- (c) a commencement document or pleading is frivolous, irrelevant or improper;
- (d) a commencement document or pleading constitutes an abuse of process;
- (e) an irregularity in a commencement document or pleading is so prejudicial to the claim that it is sufficient to defeat the claim.

(4) The Court may

- (a) strike out all or part of an affidavit that contains frivolous, irrelevant or improper information;

 - (iii) comply with an order under rule 5.11 [Order for a record to be produced].

3.69(1) A party may join 2 or more claims in an action unless the Court otherwise orders.

(2) A party may sue or be sued in different capacities in the same action.

(3) If there is more than one defendant or respondent, it is not necessary for each to have an interest

- (a) in all the remedies claimed or sought, or
- (b) in each claim included in the action.

Information note

This rule and the following rules of this Division apply to all actions, whether started by statement of claim or by originating application.

Parties joining to bring action

3.70(1) Two or more parties may join to bring an action, and a plaintiff or originating applicant may make a claim against 2 or more persons as defendants or respondents in an action, if

- (a) the claim arises out of the same transaction or occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences,
- (b) a question of law or fact common to the parties is likely to arise, or
- (c) the Court permits.

(2) This rule applies irrespective of the remedy claimed by the plaintiff or originating applicant and whether or not 2 or more plaintiffs or originating applicants seek the same remedy.

Separating claims

3.71(1) When 2 or more claims are made in an action or when 2 or more parties join or are joined in an action, the Court may make an order under this rule if the Court is satisfied that the joined claims or parties, or both, may

- (a) unduly complicate or delay the action, or
- (b) cause undue prejudice to a party.

(2) The Court may, by order, do one or more of the following:

- (a) order separate trials, hearings, applications or other proceedings;
- (b) order one or more of the claims to be asserted in another action;
- (c) order a party to be compensated by a costs award for having to attend part of a trial, hearing, application or proceeding in which the party has no interest;
- (d) excuse a party from having to attend all or part of a trial, hearing, application or proceeding in which the party has no interest.

Information note

Rule 3.46(3) [Third party defendant becomes a party] says that third party claims are to be tried with the main action unless the Court otherwise orders under this rule.

Consolidation or separation of claims and actions

3.72(1) The Court may order one or more of the following:

- (a) that 2 or more claims or actions be consolidated;
- (b) that 2 or more claims or actions be tried at the same time or one after the other;
- (c) that one or more claims or actions be stayed until another claim or action is determined;
- (d) that a claim be asserted as a counterclaim in another action.

(2) An order under subrule (1) may be made for any reason the Court considers appropriate, including, without limitation, that 2 or more claims or actions

- (a) have a common question of law or fact, or
- (b) arise out of the same transaction or occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences.

Incorrect parties not fatal to actions

3.73(1) No claim or action fails solely because

- (a) 2 or more parties join in an action that they should not have joined,
- (b) 2 or more parties do not join an action that they could or should have joined, or

- (c) a party was incorrectly named as a party or was incorrectly omitted from being named as a party.
- (2) If subrule (1) applies, a judgment entered in respect of the action is without prejudice to the rights of persons who were not parties to the action.

Subdivision 2 Changes to Parties

Adding, removing or substituting parties after close of pleadings

3.74(1) After close of pleadings, no person may be added, removed or substituted as a party to an action started by statement of claim except in accordance with this rule.

- (2) On application, the Court may order that a person be added, removed or substituted as a party to an action if
- (a) in the case of a person to be added or substituted as plaintiff, plaintiff-by-counterclaim or third party plaintiff, the application is made by a person or party and the consent of the person proposed to be added or substituted as a party is filed with the application;
 - (b) in the case of an application to add or substitute any other party, or to remove or to correct the name of a party, the application is made by a person or party and the Court is satisfied the order should be made.
- (3) The Court may not make an order under this rule if prejudice would result for a party that could not be remedied by a costs award, an adjournment or the imposition of terms.

AR 124/2010 s3.74;36/2020

Information note

An order under this rule is likely to include terms, conditions and time limits. See rule 1.4(2)(e) [Procedural orders].

Adding, removing or substituting parties to originating application

- 3.75(1) In an action started by originating application no party or person may be added or substituted as a party to the action except in accordance with this rule.
- (2) On application of a party or person, the Court may order that a person be added or substituted as a party to the action,
- (a) in the case of a person to be added or substituted as an originating applicant, if consent of the person proposed to be added or substituted is filed with the application;
 - (b) in the case of an application to add or substitute a person as a respondent, or to remove or correct the name of a party, if the Court is satisfied the order should be made.

(3) The Court may not make an order under this rule if prejudice would result for a party that could not be remedied by a costs award, an adjournment or the imposition of terms.

Action to be taken when defendant or respondent added

3.76(1) If a defendant or respondent is added to or substituted in an action, the plaintiff, originating applicant, plaintiff-by-counterclaim or third party plaintiff must, unless the Court otherwise orders,

- (a) amend the commencement document, as required, to name the new party, and
- (b) serve the amended commencement document on each of the other parties.

(2) Unless the Court otherwise orders,

- (a) in the case of a new defendant, the new defendant has the same time period to serve a statement of defence as the defendant had under rule 3.31 [Statement of defence], and
- (b) the action against the new defendant or new respondent, as the case may be, starts on the date on which the new party is added to or substituted in the action.

Subsequent encumbrancers not parties in foreclosure action

3.77 A plaintiff in a foreclosure action must not make any subsequent encumbrancer a party to the claim unless possession is claimed from the subsequent encumbrancer.

Information note

In foreclosure actions, a notice of address for service may be filed and served under rule 11.24 [Notice of address for service in foreclosure actions].

Part 4: Managing Litigation

What this Part is about: This Part sets out the responsibility of the parties to manage their litigation.

Once a statement of claim, defence, reply, and in more complicated actions a counterclaim or third party claim and related pleadings have been filed and served, each party knows what claims and defences are being made in an action. The rules then

- require the parties to manage the litigation so that the parties know when important stages in the action should be complete,
- require the parties to consider and participate in a dispute resolution process, unless the Court waives this requirement,
- provide a means for the parties to obtain Court assistance for managing the litigation, including the appointment of a case management judge, and
- establish a structure for the parties to ask a judge to actively facilitate resolution of a claim through judicial dispute resolution.

This Part also includes

- rules describing how an award for security for payment of costs can be obtained, and
- rules for a formal offer to settle the litigation and a description of the potential costs consequences when settlement is not pursued, to ensure that formal offers are given careful consideration.

Lastly, this Part deals with litigation delay, the effects of the death of a party, and discontinuing an action.

Part 4: Managing Litigation

Division 1 Responsibility of Parties

Responsibility of parties to manage litigation

4.1 The parties are responsible for managing their dispute and for planning its resolution in a timely and cost-effective way.

What the responsibility includes

4.2 The responsibility of the parties to manage their dispute and to plan its resolution requires the parties

- (a) to act in a manner that furthers the purpose and intention of these rules described in rule 1.2 [Purpose and intention of these rules],
- (b) in an action categorized as a standard case, to respond in a substantive way and within a reasonable time to any proposal for the conduct of an action,
- (c) in an action categorized as a complex case, to meet or to adjust dates in a timely way in a complex case litigation plan,
- (d) when the complexity or the nature of an action requires it, to apply to the Court for direction, or request case management under rule 4.12 [Request for case management], and
- (e) to consider and engage in one or more dispute resolution processes described in rule 4.16(1) [Dispute resolution processes] unless the Court waives that requirement.

Information note

This Part does not apply to an action brought by originating application unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise orders. See rule 3.10 [Application of Part 4 and Part 5] and rule 3.12 [Application of statement of claim rules to originating applications].

Under rule 8.4 [Trial date: scheduled by court clerk] no trial date can be scheduled by the court clerk until the parties have engaged in a dispute resolution process unless the Court waives this requirement. The waiver can be granted under rule 4.16(2) [Dispute resolution processes]. A waiver under rule 4.16(2) can also be given in the course of an application under rule 8.5(1) [Trial date: scheduled by the judge]; see rule 8.5(1)(a)(iii).

Categories of court action

4.3(1) For the purpose of these rules, actions are categorized as

- (a) standard cases, or
- (b) complex cases.

(2) In deciding whether an action should be categorized as a standard or complex case, the parties or the Court, as the case requires, must consider the following factors:

- (a) the amount of the claim, the number and nature of the claims, and the complexity of the action;
- (b) the number of parties;
- (c) the number of documents involved;
- (d) the number and complexity of issues and how important they are;
- (e) how long questioning under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information] is likely to take;
- (f) whether expert reports will be required and, if so, the time it will take to exchange reports and to question experts under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information];
- (g) whether medical examinations and reports under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information], Division 3 [Medical Examinations by Health Care Professionals] will be required;
- (h) any other matter that should be considered to meet the purpose and intention of the rules described in rule 1.2 [Purpose and intention of these rules];
- (i) whether a third party claim has been or is likely to be made.

(3) If, within 4 months after the date a statement of defence is filed, the parties do not agree on whether the action is a standard or complex case, and the Court does not otherwise order, the action is to be categorized as a standard case.

Standard case obligations

4.4(1) Unless the parties otherwise agree, or the Court otherwise orders, and subject to matters arising beyond the control of the parties, the parties to an action categorized as a standard case must, within a reasonable time considering the nature of the action, complete each of the following steps or stages in the action:

- (a) close of pleadings;
- (b) disclosure of information under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information];
- (c) at least one of the dispute resolution processes described in rule 4.16(1), unless the requirement is waived by the Court;
- (d) application for a trial date.

(2) A party to an action categorized as a standard case may serve on the other party a proposed litigation plan or a proposal for the completion or timing of any stage or step in the action, and if no agreement is reached, any party may apply to the Court for a procedural or other order respecting the plan or proposal.

Information note

Close of pleadings (referred to in subrule (1)(a)) is a time determined under rule 3.67 [Close of pleadings].

Complex case obligations

4.5(1) The parties to an action categorized as a complex case must, within 4 months after the date that the parties agree to the categorization or the Court determines that the action is a complex case,

- (a) agree on a complex case litigation plan, and
- (b) unless reasons are given in the plan not to do so,
 - (i) establish a date by which the real issues in dispute will be identified,
 - (ii) agree on a protocol for the organization and production of records,

 - (iv) set a date by which questioning under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information] will be completed,
 - (v) set a date by which all experts' reports and rebuttal and surrebuttal expert reports will be served,
 - (vi) set a date by which reports of any health care professionals will be obtained, and
 - (vii) agree on an estimated date to apply for a trial date.

(2) When a complex case litigation plan or an amendment to the plan is agreed to, the plaintiff must file it and serve it on all parties.

Settling disputes about complex case litigation plans

4.6 If no agreement is reached on a complex case litigation plan within the period referred to in rule 4.5(1) [Complex case obligations], or if the parties cannot agree on an adjustment to a date in the plan, the Court may

- (a) establish or amend a complex case litigation plan for the action, or
- (b) make a procedural order with respect to the action generally or to deal with particular issues or issues that may arise.

Monitoring and adjusting dates

4.7(1) The parties must monitor progress in their action and adjust the dates by which a stage or step in the action is expected to be completed if a party is added to the action or as circumstances require.

(2) On application, the Court may adjust or set dates by which a stage or a step in the action is expected to be completed.

Court may categorize actions

4.8(1) On application, the Court may direct whether an action is to be categorized as a standard or complex case.

(2) The Court may change the categorization of an action to complex or standard at any time.

Division 2

Court Assistance in Managing Litigation

Orders to facilitate proceedings

4.9 If a party or the Court is not satisfied that an action is being managed in accordance with rule 4.2 [What the responsibility includes],

- (a) the party may apply for a procedural order, an order under rule 4.10 [Assistance by the Court] or any other appropriate order;
- (b) the Court may make a procedural order, an order under rule 4.10 [Assistance by the Court] or any other appropriate order.

Assistance by the Court

4.10(1) The Court may, at any time, direct the parties and any other person to attend a conference with the Court.

- (2) The participants in the conference may consider
- (a) dispute resolution possibilities, the process for them, and how they can be facilitated;
 - (b) simplification or clarification of a claim, a pleading, a question, an issue, an application or a proceeding;
 - (c) a complex case litigation plan or a modification to the plan;
 - (d) case management by a judge;
 - (e) practice, procedural or other issues or questions and how to resolve them;
 - (f) any other matter that may aid in the resolution or facilitate the resolution of a claim, application or proceeding or otherwise meet the purpose and intention of these rules described in rule 1.2 [Purpose and intention of these rules].
- (3) If a party files an application for a conference under this rule, that party must
- (a) give a reason for the conference, and
 - (b) file and serve on every other party notice of the application and any material to be relied on in support of the application a reasonable time before the date the conference is scheduled to take place.
- (4) The Court may make a procedural order before, at or following the conference.

Ways the Court may manage action

4.11 The Court may manage an action in one or more of the following ways, in which case the responsibility of the parties to manage their dispute is modified accordingly:

- (a) the Court may make a procedural order;
- (b) the Court may direct a conference under rule 4.10 [Assistance by the Court];
- (c) on request under rule 4.12 [Request for case management], or on the initiative of the Chief Justice under rule 4.13 [Appointment of case management judge], the Chief Justice may appoint a case management judge for the action;
- (d) the Court may make an order under a rule providing for specific direction or a remedy.

Request for case management

4.12(1) A request for a case management order must be made in writing to the Chief Justice and a copy of the request must be served on each of the other parties.

- (2) The request must state
 - (a) the reason for the request, and
 - (b) whether any of the other parties agrees with the request.
- (3) An action commenced or continued under the Class Proceedings Act must have a case management judge appointed for the action unless the Chief Justice decides otherwise, and the request for a case management judge must be made no later than the date on which the first application in respect of the class proceeding is made under section 2(2) of the Class Proceedings Act.

Appointment of case management judge

4.13 The Chief Justice may order that an action be subject to case management and appoint a judge as the case management judge for the action for one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) to encourage the parties to participate in a dispute resolution process;
- (b) to promote and ensure the fair and efficient conduct and resolution of the action;
- (c) to keep the parties on schedule;
- (d) to facilitate preparation for trial and the scheduling of a trial date.

Authority of case management judge

4.14(1) A case management judge, or if the circumstances require, any other judge, may

- (a) order that steps be taken by the parties to identify, simplify or clarify the real issues in dispute,

- (b) establish, substitute or amend a complex case litigation plan and order the parties to comply with it,
- (c) make an order to facilitate an application, proceeding, questioning or pre-trial proceeding,
- (d) make an order to promote the fair and efficient resolution of the action by trial,
- (e) facilitate efforts the parties may be willing to take towards the efficient resolution of the action or any issue in the action through negotiation or a dispute resolution process other than trial,
- (f) make any procedural order that the judge considers necessary, or
- (g) as a case management judge, exercise the powers that a trial judge has by adjudicating any issues that can be decided before commencement of the trial, including those related to
 - (i) the admissibility of evidence,
 - (ii) expert witnesses,
 - (iii) admissions, and
 - (iv) adverse inferences.

(2) Unless the Chief Justice or the case management judge otherwise directs, or these rules otherwise provide, the case management judge must hear every application filed with respect to the action for which the case management judge is appointed.

(3) A decision that results from the exercise of the power referred to in subrule (1)(g) is binding on the parties for the remainder of the trial, even if the judge who hears the evidence on the merits is not the same as the case management judge, unless the court is satisfied that it would not be in the interests of justice because, among other considerations, fresh evidence has been adduced.

Case management judge presiding at streamlined trial and trial

4.15 Unless every party and the judge agree, a case management judge must not preside at the streamlined trial or trial of the action for which the case management judge is appointed.

AR 124/2010 s4.15;126/2023

Division 3
Dispute Resolution by Agreement

Subdivision 1
Dispute Resolution Processes

Dispute resolution processes

4.16(1) The responsibility of the parties to manage their dispute includes good faith participation in one or more of the following dispute resolution processes with respect to all or any part of the action:

- (a) a dispute resolution process in the private or government sectors involving an impartial third person;
- (b) a Court annexed dispute resolution process;
- (c) a judicial dispute resolution process described in rules 4.17 to 4.21 [Judicial Dispute Resolution];
- (d) any program or process designated by the Court for the purpose of this rule.

(2) On application, the Court may waive the responsibility of the parties under this rule, but only if

- (a) before the action started the parties engaged in a dispute resolution process and the parties and the Court believe that a further dispute resolution process would not be beneficial,
- (b) the nature of the claim is not one, in all the circumstances, that will or is likely to result in an agreement between the parties,
- (c) there is a compelling reason why a dispute resolution process should not be attempted by the parties,
- (d) the Court is satisfied that engaging in a dispute resolution process would be futile, or
- (e) the claim is of such a nature that a decision by the Court is necessary or desirable.

(3) The parties must attend the hearing of an application under subrule (2) unless the Court otherwise orders.

(4) A case management judge or a case conference judge may, on application or on the Court's own motion, by order direct that the parties participate in a dispute resolution process.

(5) In determining whether an order under subrule (4) should be made, the case management judge or case conference judge may consider all relevant circumstances, including

- (a) the issues in the litigation,
- (b) the nature of the cause of action and the relief claimed,

- (c) the identity, relationship and means of the parties,
 - (d) whether the action has proceeded to a stage at which alternative dispute resolution is likely to be successful, including whether record production and questioning are sufficiently advanced to support the dispute resolution process, and
 - (e) whether any of the factors in subrule (2) justify delaying, modifying or dispensing with the need to participate in a dispute resolution process.
- (6) As part of an order made under subrule (4), the case management judge or case conference judge may give directions respecting any aspect of the dispute resolution process, including
- (a) the identity of a neutral third party to be involved in the process,
 - (b) where an equal sharing of the expenses is not appropriate, directions apportioning the responsibility of each party for the expenses of the neutral third party and other disbursements relating to the process,
 - (c) the time, location, structure or conduct of the process, and
 - (d) the consequences of the failure of any party to comply with any directions, or to pay its share of the expenses.

AR 124/2010 s4.16;36/2020

Information note

Note that under rule 8.4(3) [Trial date: scheduled by court clerk], the court clerk cannot schedule a trial date unless satisfactory evidence is produced that the parties have participated in a dispute resolution process or the Court, by order, waives this requirement under rule 4.16(2). If the Court sets a trial date under rule 8.5 [Trial date: scheduled by the judge] the Court may, if the conditions of rule 4.16(2) are met, give a waiver of that rule at that time.

Subdivision 2 Judicial Dispute Resolution

Purpose of judicial dispute resolution

4.17 The purpose of this Subdivision is to provide a party-initiated framework for a judge to actively facilitate a process in which the parties resolve all or part of a claim by agreement.

Judicial dispute resolution process

4.18(1) An arrangement for a judicial dispute resolution process may be made only with the agreement of the participating parties and, before engaging in a judicial dispute resolution process, and subject to the directions of the presiding judge, the participating parties must agree to the extent possible on at least the following:

- (a) that every party necessary to participate in the process has agreed to do so, unless there is sufficient reason not to have complete agreement;

- (b) rules to be followed in the process, including rules respecting
 - (i) the nature of the process,
 - (ii) the matters to be the subject of the process,
 - (iii) the manner in which the process will be conducted,
 - (iv) the date on which and the location and time at which the process will occur,
 - (v) the role of the judge and any outcome expected of that role,
 - (vi) any practice or procedure related to the process, including exchange of materials, before, at or after the process,
 - (vii) who will participate in the process, which must include persons who have authority to agree on a resolution of the dispute, unless otherwise agreed, and
 - (viii) any other matter appropriate to the process, the parties or the dispute.
- (2) The parties who agree on the proposed judicial dispute resolution process are entitled to participate in the process.
- (3) The parties to a proposed judicial dispute resolution process may request that a judge named by the parties participate in the process.

Information note

The parties to a JDR process cannot, of course, bind a judge to participate in the process. The parties should find out in advance whether their proposed process gives a judge any difficulty. If the judge is not willing to participate in the process agreed on by the parties, the parties are free to seek the assistance of another judge.

If the parties agree and a judge is willing, the judge may assist the parties in working out a JDR process.

Documents resulting from judicial dispute resolution

4.19 The only documents, if any, that may result from a judicial dispute resolution process are

- (a) an agreement prepared by the parties, and any other document necessary to implement the agreement,
- (b) a consent order or consent judgment resulting from the process, and
- (c) a transcript of proceedings made in open court at the time of the judicial dispute resolution process which records the outcome of the judicial dispute resolution process.

AR 124/2010 s4.19;128/2015

Confidentiality and use of information

4.20(1) A judicial dispute resolution process is a confidential process intended to facilitate the resolution of a dispute.

(2) Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, statements made or documents generated for or in the judicial dispute resolution process with a view to resolving the dispute

- (a) are privileged and are made or generated without prejudice,
- (b) must be treated by the parties and participants in the process as confidential and may only be used for the purpose of that dispute resolution process, and
- (c) may not be referred to, presented as evidence or relied on, and are not admissible in a subsequent application or proceeding in the same action or in any other action, or in proceedings of a judicial or quasi-judicial nature.

(3) Subrule (2) does not apply to the documents referred to in rule 4.19 [Documents resulting from judicial dispute resolution].

(4) Subrule (2) does not prevent the use of statements made or documents generated for or in the judicial dispute resolution process to prove the fact that a settlement was reached or the terms of a settlement.

AR 124/2010 s4.20;128/2015

Involvement of judge after process concludes

4.21(1) The judge facilitating a judicial dispute resolution process in an action must not hear or decide any subsequent application, proceeding or trial in the action without the written agreement of every party and the agreement of the judge.

(2) The judge facilitating a judicial dispute resolution process must treat the judicial dispute resolution process as confidential, and all the records relating to the process in the possession of the judge or in the possession of the court clerk must be returned to the parties or destroyed except

- (a) the agreement of the parties and any document necessary to implement the agreement, and
- (b) a consent order or consent judgment resulting from the process.

(3) The judge facilitating a judicial dispute resolution process is not competent to give evidence nor compellable to give evidence in any application or proceeding relating to the process in the same action, in any other action, or in any proceeding of a judicial or quasi-judicial nature.

Division 4 Security for Payment of Costs Award

Considerations for security for costs order

4.22 The Court may order a party to provide security for payment of a costs award if the Court considers it just and reasonable to do so, taking into account all of the following:

- (a) whether it is likely the applicant for the order will be able to enforce an order or judgment against assets in Alberta;
- (b) the ability of the respondent to the application to pay the costs award;
- (c) the merits of the action in which the application is filed;
- (d) whether an order to give security for payment of a costs award would unduly prejudice the respondent's ability to continue the action;
- (e) any other matter the Court considers appropriate.

Contents of security for costs order

4.23(1) An order to provide security for payment of a costs award must, unless the Court otherwise orders,

- (a) specify the nature of the security to be provided, which may include payment into Court,
- (b) require a party to whom the order is directed to provide the security no later than 2 months after the date of the order or any other time specified in the order,
- (c) stay some or all applications and other proceedings in the action until the security is provided, and
- (d) state that if the security is not provided in accordance with the order, as the case requires,
 - (i) all or part of an action is dismissed without further order, or
 - (ii) a claim or defence is struck out.

(2) If the security is given by bond, the bond must be given to the party requiring security unless the Court otherwise orders.

(3) If the security is given by money paid into Court, the money may, by agreement of the parties, be paid out and a bond substituted for it.

(4) As circumstances require, the Court may

- (a) increase or reduce the security required to be provided, and
- (b) vary the nature of the security to be provided.

(5) An order under this rule may amend a complex case litigation plan.

Division 5 Settlement Using Court Process

Formal offers to settle

4.24(1) At any time after a statement of claim, a claim under the Family Law Act, an application to vary a custody order under the Extra-provincial Enforcement of Custody Orders Act or an originating application to vary a corollary relief order granted by another court under the Divorce Act (Canada) is filed, but 10 days or more before

- (a) a streamlined trial is scheduled to be heard,
- (b) a trial is scheduled to start, or
- (c) an application is scheduled to be heard or considered, one party may serve on the party to whom the offer is made a formal offer to settle the action or a claim in the action.

(2) To be valid a formal offer to settle must be made within the period described in subrule (1), be in Form 22 and include the following information:

- (a) the name of the party making the offer;
- (b) the name of the party or parties to whom the offer is made;
- (c) what the offer is and any conditions attached to it;
- (d) whether or not the amount of the offer is inclusive of interest and, if not, to what date and at what rate interest is payable under the terms of the offer;
- (e) whether or not the amount of the offer is inclusive of costs and, if not, the amount or scale of the costs and the date to which they are payable under the terms of the offer;
- (f) the requirements that must be complied with to accept the offer;
- (g) a form of acceptance of the offer;
- (h) notice of the costs consequences specified in rule 4.29 [Costs consequences of formal offer to settle].

(3) Unless a valid formal offer to settle is withdrawn under subrule (4), the offer remains open for acceptance until

- (a) the expiry of 2 months after service of the offer or any longer period specified in the offer, or
- (b) the start of a streamlined trial, the start of a trial or the start of a hearing of an application, as the case may be, whichever occurs first.

(4) A valid formal offer to settle may not be withdrawn unless

- (a) the Court first gives permission for the withdrawal, which may be given only if the Court is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify withdrawal, and
- (b) the party who made the offer serves written notice of withdrawal on every party who received the offer.

AR 124/2010 s4.24;143/2011;126/2023

Acceptance of formal offer to settle

4.25(1) For the purpose of this Division, a formal offer to settle an action or a claim in an action may only be accepted in accordance with this rule.

(2) At any time a formal offer to settle remains open for acceptance or before a formal offer to settle is withdrawn, a party to whom the offer has been made may accept the offer by

- (a) filing the offer and the acceptance of it, and
- (b) serving on the party who made the offer notice that
 - (i) the offer has been accepted, and
 - (ii) the terms of any judgment or order in the offer have been agreed to.

(3) After the filing and service, a party may

- (a) apply to the Court for judgment or an order in accordance with the terms of the formal offer to settle,
- (b) continue the action in respect of any matter not covered by the judgment or order, and
- (c) continue the action against any party who is not a party to the settlement.

If costs are not dealt with in formal offer to settle

4.26 If a formal offer to settle and acceptance filed under rule 4.25 [Acceptance of formal offer to settle] do not deal with costs, either party may apply to the Court for an order under rule 10.31 [Court-ordered costs award].

Status of formal offer to settle and acceptance

4.27 Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, a formal offer to settle under this Division

- (a) is to be considered as an offer to settle that is made without prejudice, and
- (b) is not an admission of anything.

Confidentiality of formal offer to settle

4.28(1) Subject to rule 4.24(4) [Formal offers to settle] and subrule (2), a formal offer to settle is to be kept confidential and not disclosed to the Court until

- (a) it is accepted, or
- (b) the remedy for the claim has been decided.

(2) Subrule (1) does not apply to an offer of a written or printed apology made under section 4 of the Defamation Act.

Costs consequences of formal offer to settle

4.29(1) Subject to subrule (4), if a plaintiff makes a formal offer to settle that is not accepted and subsequently obtains a judgment or order in the action that is equal to or more favourable to the plaintiff than the offer, the plaintiff is entitled to double the costs to which the plaintiff would otherwise have been entitled under rule 10.31(1)(a) [Court-ordered costs award] or 10.32 [Costs in a class proceeding] for all steps taken in relation to the action or claim after service of the offer, excluding disbursements.

(2) Subject to subrule (4), if a defendant makes a formal offer to settle that is not accepted and a judgment or order in the action is made that is equal to or more favourable to the defendant than the offer, the defendant is entitled to costs for all steps taken in the action in relation to the action or claim after service of the offer.

(3) A defendant is entitled to double the costs provided for in subrule (2), excluding disbursements, if

- (a) subrule (2) applies, and
- (b) the action or claim that is the subject of the formal offer to settle is dismissed.

(4) This rule does not apply

- (a) if costs are awarded under rule 10.31(1)(b) [Court-ordered costs award],
- (b) in the case of a formal offer to settle made with respect to a streamlined trial, if the offer is made less than 10 days before the date scheduled to hear the streamlined trial,
- (c) in the case of a formal offer to settle made with respect to any other matter, if the offer is made less than 10 days before the date scheduled for the trial to start,
- (d) in the case of a formal offer to settle that is withdrawn in accordance with rule 4.24(4) [Formal offers to settle], or
- (e) if in special circumstances the Court orders that this rule is not to apply.

AR 124/2010 s4.29;126/2023

When this Division does not apply

4.30 This Division does not apply to an action or a claim in an action in respect of which a defence of tender before the action started is pleaded unless that defence is first withdrawn.

Information note

Rule 13.9 [Defence of tender] sets out the conditions for a defence of tender before action.

Division 6
Delay in an Action*Application to deal with delay

4.31(1) If delay occurs in an action, on application the Court may

- (a) dismiss all or any part of a claim if the Court determines that the delay has resulted in significant prejudice to a party, or
- (b) make a procedural order or any other order provided for by these rules.

(2) Where, in determining an application under this rule, the Court finds that the delay in an action is inordinate and inexcusable, that delay is presumed to have resulted in significant prejudice to the party that brought the application.

(3) In determining whether to dismiss all or any part of a claim under this rule, or whether the delay is inordinate or inexcusable, the Court must consider whether the party that brought the application participated in or contributed to the delay.

Agreement about delay

4.32 If 2 or more parties agree to delay an application or proceeding in an action, each of the other parties must be served with notice of the agreement to delay and of the nature and extent of the delay.

Dismissal for long delay

4.33(1) In this rule,

- (a) “applicant” means a party to an action who makes an application to dismiss the action for delay as set out in this rule;
- (b) “respondent” means a party who has filed a commencement document;
- (c) “suspension period” means, in subrules (5) to (9), a period that ends on
 - (i) a specific date, or
 - (ii) the happening of a specific event.

(2) If 3 or more years have passed without a significant advance in an action, the Court, on application, must dismiss the action as against the applicant, unless

- (a) the action has been stayed or adjourned by order, an order has been made under subrule (9) or the delay is provided for in a litigation plan under this Part, or

- (b) an application has been filed or proceedings have been taken since the delay and the applicant has participated in them for a purpose and to the extent that, in the opinion of the Court, warrants the action continuing.
- (3) If the Court refuses an application to dismiss an action for delay, the Court may make whatever procedural order it considers appropriate.
- (4) The period of time referred to in subrule (2) does not include the following, whichever ends earlier:
- (a) the period of time between the service of a statement of claim on an applicant and the service of the applicant's statement of defence;
 - (b) the period of one year after the date of service of a statement of claim on an applicant.
- (5) If a respondent and an applicant agree in writing to a suspension period, the period of time under subrule (2) does not include the suspension period agreed to.
- (6) A respondent, whether or not the respondent has sought agreement under subrule (5), may serve an applicant with a written proposal setting out a suspension period and requesting that the suspension period not be included in computing the period of time under subrule (2).
- (7) An applicant who receives a proposal referred to in subrule (6) must respond within 2 months, and within that time
- (a) if the applicant agrees with the proposal, then the period of time under subrule (2) does not include the suspension period agreed to, or
 - (b) if the applicant disagrees with the proposal or does not respond to the proposal, then the respondent may apply for an order under subrule (9).
- (8) If a suspension period is agreed to under subrule (5) or (7)(a), the respondent must give all other parties to the action written notice setting forth what the suspension period is, when it was agreed to and by whom.
- (9) A respondent, whether or not the respondent has sought agreement under subrule (5) or served a proposal under subrule (6), may apply for an order setting out a suspension period that shall not be included in computing the period of time under subrule (2).
- (10) Rule 13.5 [Variation of time periods] does not apply to this rule.

AR 124/2010 s4.33;140/2013;85/2016

Division 7 Transfer and Transmission of Interest

Stay of proceedings on transfer or transmission of interest

4.34(1) If at any time in an action prior to judgment the interest or liability of a party is transferred or transmitted to another person by assignment, bankruptcy, death or other means, the action is stayed until an order to continue the action by or against the other person has been obtained.

(2) If a transfer or transmission of the interest or liability of a party takes place while an application or proceeding in an action is pending, an interested person may, on filing an affidavit verifying the transfer or transmission of the interest or liability and without notice to any other party, request the Court to order that the action continue.

(3) An order to continue the action must be served on each of the other parties as soon as it is received by the party requesting the order.

(4) If an order to continue an action is not made within a reasonable time after the date on which the action is stayed, the defendant or respondent may apply to the Court to have the action dismissed for delay under rule 4.31 [Application to deal with delay].

Death has no effect on action after evidence heard

4.35 If a party dies before judgment but after all the evidence has been heard,

- (a) the death does not terminate the action, whether or not the claim survives death, and
- (b) judgment may be pronounced and entered despite the death.

Division 8 Discontinuance

Discontinuance of claim

4.36(1) Before a date is set for trial, a plaintiff may discontinue all or any part of an action against one or more defendants.

(2) After a trial date has been set but before a trial starts, a plaintiff may discontinue all or part of an action against one or more defendants only

- (a) with the written agreement of every party, or
- (b) with the Court's permission.

(3) After the trial starts, a plaintiff may discontinue all or part of an action only with the Court's permission.

(4) A discontinuance under this rule must be in Form 23 and must be filed and served on each of the other parties and, after the plaintiff serves notice of discontinuance, the defendant is entitled to a costs award against the plaintiff for having defended against the discontinued claim.

(5) The discontinuance of the action may not be raised as a defence to any subsequent action for the same or substantially the same claim.

Discontinuance of defence

4.37(1) A defendant may discontinue the whole of a statement of defence by filing a notice of discontinuance in Form 24 and serving it on the plaintiff.

- (2) On filing the notice of discontinuance,
- (a) the defendant is in default of defence, and
 - (b) the plaintiff is entitled to a costs award against the defendant for having responded to the discontinued defence.

Part 5: Disclosure of Information

What this Part is about: This Part describes what information and records the parties must disclose to each other and when and how the parties may question each other about the dispute. The Part requires the parties to share relevant and material information about the action in order to clearly identify

- what is in dispute,
- what evidence is available about the dispute.

This information helps minimize surprises during Court proceedings and avoids delay later in the litigation, assists the parties in evaluating their own and the other party's case, and facilitates resolution of the dispute or elements of it.

This Part also contains rules for the evidence of experts and rules for medical examinations by health care professionals.

Part 5: Disclosure of Information

Purpose of this Part

5.1(1) Within the context of rule 1.2 [Purpose and intention of these rules], the purpose of this Part is

- (a) to obtain evidence that will be relied on in the action,
- (b) to narrow and define the issues between parties,
- (c) to encourage early disclosure of facts and records,
- (d) to facilitate evaluation of the parties' positions and, if possible, resolution of issues in dispute, and
- (e) to discourage conduct that unnecessarily or improperly delays proceedings or unnecessarily increases the cost of them.

(2) The Court may give directions or make any order necessary to achieve the purpose of this Part.

Information note

This Part does not apply to actions started by originating application unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise orders. See rule 3.10 [Application of Part 4 and Part 5].

Division 1 How Information Is Disclosed

Subdivision 1 Introductory Matters

When something is relevant and material

5.2(1) For the purposes of this Part, a question, record or information is relevant and material only if the answer to the question, or the record or information, could reasonably be expected

- (a) to significantly help determine one or more of the issues raised in the pleadings, or
- (b) to ascertain evidence that could reasonably be expected to significantly help determine one or more of the issues raised in the pleadings.

(2) The disclosure or production of a record under this Division is not, by reason of that fact alone, to be considered as an agreement or acknowledgment that the record is admissible or relevant and material.

Modification or waiver of this Part

5.3(1) The Court may modify or waive any right or power under a rule in this Part or make any order warranted in the circumstances if

- (a) a person acts or threatens to act in a manner that is vexatious, evasive, abusive, oppressive, improper or tediously lengthy, or
- (b) the expense, delay, danger or difficulty in complying with a rule would be grossly disproportionate to the likely benefit.

(2) In addition to making a procedural order, the Court may do any one or more of the following:

- (a) make a costs award under Part 10 [Lawyers' Charges, Recoverable Costs of Litigation, and Sanctions] or require an advance payment against costs payable, or both;
- (b) increase or decrease the amount of interest to which a person is entitled;
- (c) order future questioning to be conducted before a judge, applications judge or person designated by the Court;
- (d) make any other order respecting the action or an application or proceeding the Court considers necessary in the circumstances.

AR 124/2010 s5.3;136/2022

Information note

A procedural order may include any order described in rule 1.4 [Procedural orders] or an order under any other rule respecting practice or procedure.

Appointment of corporate representatives

5.4(1) Unless the Court otherwise orders, every corporation that is a party must appoint a corporate representative.

(2) Corporate representatives must

- (a) inform themselves of relevant and material records and relevant and material information before being questioned under this Division,
- (b) if questioned under this Division, bring to the questioning any records likely to be required in respect of which there is no claim of privilege, and
- (c) give appropriate evidence of the relevant and material records and relevant and material information.

(3) The corporate representative's evidence is evidence given by the corporation.

(4) On application, the Court may order corporate representatives to inform themselves of relevant and material records or relevant and material information, or both.

- (5) The Court may appoint a corporate representative for a party that is a corporation if the party has not done so.
- (6) The Court may appoint an additional or a substitute corporate representative for a party that is a corporation if
- (a) an appointed corporate representative is not suitable, or
 - (b) an appointed corporate representative failed to inform himself or herself of relevant and material records and relevant and material information before being questioned.

Subdivision 2 Disclosing and Identifying Relevant and Material Records

When affidavit of records must be served

5.5(1) Every party must serve an affidavit of records on each of the other parties in accordance with the time period specified in subrule (2), (3) or (4).

(2) The plaintiff must serve an affidavit of records on each of the other parties within 3 months after the date the plaintiff is served with a statement of defence, or the first statement of defence if more than one is served.

(3) The defendant must serve an affidavit of records on each of the other parties within 2 months after the date the defendant is served with the plaintiff's affidavit of records.

(4) A third party defendant who has filed a statement of defence must, within 3 months after that filing, serve an affidavit of records on each of the other parties.

AR 124/2010 s5.5;140/2013

Information note

An affidavit of records must not be filed unless it is needed for the purpose of an application or at trial. See rule 5.32 [When information can be used].

Form and contents of affidavit of records

5.6(1) An affidavit of records must

- (a) be in Form 26, and
 - (b) disclose all records that
 - (i) are relevant and material to the issues in the action, and
 - (ii) are or have been under the party's control.
- (2) The affidavit of records must also specify
- (a) which of the records are under the control of the party on whose behalf the affidavit is made,

- (b) which of those records, if any, the party objects to produce and the grounds for the objection,
 - (c) for those records for which there is no objection to produce, a notice stating
 - (i) the time when the record may be inspected, which must be within 10 days after the affidavit is served, and
 - (ii) the place where the record may be inspected, which must be
 - (A) the address for service of the party serving the affidavit,
 - (B) a place agreed on by the parties or ordered by the Court, or
 - (C) if the record is in constant use, the place where it is usually kept,
 - (d) which relevant and material records the party previously had under the party's control, and
 - (i) the time when, and the manner in which, those records ceased to be under that party's control, and
 - (ii) the present location of the records, if known,
- and
- (e) that the party does not have and has never had any other relevant and material record under the party's control.
- (3) If a party does not have and has never had any relevant and material records under the party's control, the affidavit must say so.

AR 124/2010 s5.6;122/2012

Information note

The Court may give directions to facilitate disclosure and examination of documents that may be costly or lengthy. See rule 5.1(2) [Purpose of this Part] and rule 1.4 [Procedural orders].

Producible records

5.7(1) Each producible record in an affidavit of records must

- (a) be numbered in a convenient order, and
 - (b) be briefly described.
- (2) A group of records may be bundled and treated as a single record if
- (a) the records are all of the same nature, and
 - (b) the bundle is described in sufficient detail to enable another party to understand what it contains.

Producible records for which there is an objection to produce

5.8(1) Subject to subrules (3) to (5), for each producible record that a party objects to produce, the affidavit of records must

- (a) number the record in a convenient order, and
- (b) describe the grounds for the objection to produce the record.

(2) For the purposes of this rule, the description in the affidavit of records of any record the party objects to produce and the grounds for the objection must be sufficient to enable a court reviewing the records to confirm that each record is disclosed in the affidavit without undermining or proving the privilege that is claimed in respect of the records.

(3) Subject to subrule (4), if a party objects to produce a number of related records on the same grounds, the records may be bundled and numbered, and the records along with the grounds for the objection to produce the records may be collectively described in the affidavit of records.

(4) For greater certainty,

- (a) producible records that a party objects to produce that are in the files of a lawyer
 - (i) may be disclosed collectively in the affidavit of records without being numbered, if the records consist of the lawyer's work product, including working notes and memoranda prepared by the lawyer or the law firm and communications with the client and opposing counsel,
 - (ii) may be numbered or bundled and may be disclosed collectively in the affidavit of records, if the records are described in a manner that distinguishes
 - (A) records for which solicitor and client privilege is claimed,
 - (B) records that were prepared for the dominant purpose of litigation, and
 - (C) records for which production is objected to on a ground other than those referred to in paragraphs (A) and (B), and

- (b) producible records that a party does not object to produce that are in the files of a lawyer must be separately disclosed in the affidavit of records.

(5) Expert reports prepared for the dominant purpose of litigation, and records related to those expert reports, must be disclosed in accordance with rule 5.35 [Sequence of exchange of experts' reports], and not in accordance with this Division.

Who makes affidavit of records

5.9(1) Subject to subrule (2), an affidavit of records must be sworn by

- (a) the party,
- (b) if the party is a corporation, by the corporation's corporate representative, or
- (c) if a litigation representative is appointed for a party, by the party's litigation representative.

(2) A suitable person, other than the lawyer of record of the party, may swear the affidavit of records if

- (a) it is inconvenient for the party, the corporate representative or the litigation representative to do so, and
- (b) the parties agree or the Court so orders.

Subsequent disclosure of records

5.10 If, after a party has served an affidavit of records on other parties, the first party finds, creates or obtains control of a relevant and material record not previously disclosed, the first party must

- (a) immediately give notice of it to each of the other parties,
- (b) on written request and on payment of reasonable copying expenses, supply each of the other parties with a copy of it, and
- (c) prior to scheduling a date for trial, serve a supplementary affidavit of records on each of the other parties.

Order for record to be produced

5.11(1) On application, the Court may order a record to be produced if the Court is satisfied that

- (a) a relevant and material record under the control of a party has been omitted from an affidavit of records, or
- (b) a claim of privilege has been incorrectly or improperly made in respect of a record.

(2) For the purpose of making a decision on the application, the Court may

- (a) inspect a record, and
- (b) permit cross-examination on the original and on any subsequent affidavit of records.

Penalty for not serving affidavit of records

5.12(1) In addition to any other order or sanction that may be imposed, the Court may impose a penalty of 2 times the amount set out in item 3(1) of the tariff in Division 2 of Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees], or any larger or smaller amount the Court may determine, on a party who, without sufficient cause,

- (a) does not serve an affidavit of records in accordance with rule 5.5 [When an affidavit of records must be served] or within any modified period agreed on by the parties or set by the Court,
 - (b) does not comply with rule 5.10 [Subsequent disclosure of records], or
 - (c) does not comply with an order under rule 5.11 [Order for a record to be produced].
- (2) If there is more than one party adverse in interest to the party ordered to pay the penalty, the penalty must be paid to the parties in the proportions determined by the Court.
- (3) A penalty imposed under this rule applies irrespective of the final outcome of the action.

Information note

One of the additional sanctions that may be imposed is the striking out of pleadings. See rule 3.68(3) [Court options to deal with significant deficiencies].

Obtaining records from others

5.13(1) On application, and after notice of the application is served on the person affected by it, the Court may order a person who is not a party to produce a record at a specified date, time and place if

- (a) the record is under the control of that person,
 - (b) there is reason to believe that the record is relevant and material, and
 - (c) the person who has control of the record might be required to produce it at trial.
- (2) The person requesting the record must pay the person producing the record an amount determined by the Court.

Inspection and copying of records

5.14(1) Every party is entitled, with respect to a record that is relevant and material and that is under the control of another party, to all of the following:

- (a) to inspect the record on one or more occasions on making a written request to do so;
 - (b) to receive a copy of the record on making a written request for the copy and paying reasonable copying expenses;
 - (c) to make copies of the record when it is produced.
- (2) This rule does not apply to a record for which a claim of privilege is made unless the Court orders the record to be produced for inspection.

(3) The Court or a party to an action who receives a computer-generated document that was filed with the court clerk may request the person filing that document or causing it to be issued to provide a copy of it in an electronic format.

Admissions of authenticity of records

5.15(1) In this rule, “authentic” includes the fact that

- (a) a document that is said to be an original was printed, written, signed or executed as it purports to have been, and
- (b) a document that is said to be a copy is a true copy of the original.

(2) Subject to subrules (3), (4), (5) and (6), a party who makes an affidavit of records or on whose behalf an affidavit of records is filed and a party on whom an affidavit of records is served are both presumed to admit that

- (a) a record specified or referred to in the affidavit is authentic, and
- (b) if a record purports or appears to have been transmitted, the original was sent by the sender and was received by the addressee.

(3) Subrule (2)

- (a) does not apply if the maker or the recipient of the affidavit objects in accordance with subrule (4),
- (b) does not prejudice the right of a party to object to the admission of a record in evidence, and
- (c) does not constitute an agreement or acknowledgment that the record is relevant and material.

(4) The maker or recipient of an affidavit of records is not presumed to make the admission referred to in subrule (2) if, within 3 months after the date on which the records are produced, the maker or recipient serves notice on the other party that the authenticity or transmittal of a record, as the case may be, is disputed and that it must be proved at trial.

(5) Notwithstanding that the maker or recipient of an affidavit of records does not serve a notice under subrule (4) within the time provided by that subrule, the Court may order that the maker or recipient is not presumed to make the admission referred to in subrule (2).

(6) This rule does not apply to a record whose authenticity, receipt or transmission has been denied by a party in the party’s pleadings.

AR 124/2010 s5.15;140/2013

Information note

A party who invokes subrule (4) unreasonably may be ordered to pay costs under rule 10.33(2) [Court considerations in making a costs award]. Denials of authenticity must be specific and contain particulars. Blanket denials of authenticity are not an acceptable response.

Undisclosed records not to be used without permission

5.16 A party who

- (a) does not disclose a relevant and material record in an affidavit of records referred to in rule 5.6 [Form and contents of affidavit of records],
- (b) does not disclose as required by rule 5.10 [Subsequent disclosure of records] a relevant and material record that is found, created or obtained, or
- (c) does not produce a relevant and material record in accordance with a valid request to do so under rule 5.14 [Inspection and copying of records]

may not afterwards use the record in evidence in the action unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise orders on the basis that there was a sufficient reason for the failure to disclose.

Subdivision 3Questions to Discover Relevant and Material Records and Relevant and Material Information*People who may be questioned

5.17(1) A party is entitled to ask the following persons questions under oath about relevant and material records and relevant and material information:

- (a) each of the other parties who is adverse in interest;
- (b) if the party adverse in interest is a corporation,
 - (i) one or more officers or former officers of the corporation who have or appear to have relevant and material information that was acquired because they are or were officers of the corporation, and
 - (ii) the corporate representative;
- (c) if a litigation representative is appointed for a party,
 - (i) the litigation representative, and
 - (ii) with the Court's permission, the person on whose behalf the litigation representative is appointed if that person is competent to give evidence;
- (d) one or more other persons who are or were employees of the party adverse in interest who have or appear to have relevant and material information that was acquired because of the employment;

- (e) an auditor or former auditor engaged by a party adverse in interest, but not an auditor or former auditor engaged solely for the purpose of the action;
- (f) if a partnership is a party adverse in interest, a partner or former partner of the partnership;
- (g) in an action with respect to a negotiable instrument or chose in action,
 - (i) an assignor of the negotiable instrument or chose in action,
 - (ii) a prior endorser, drawer, holder or maker of the negotiable instrument, and
 - (iii) an employee or former employee of an assignor of the negotiable instrument or chose in action, and if the assignor is a corporation, an officer or former officer of the corporation.

(2) If a questioning party questions more than one person of a party adverse in interest under subrule (1) and the person questioned is

- (a) an officer or former officer of a corporation described in subrule (1)(b)(i),
- (b) an employee or former employee of the party adverse in interest described in subrule (1)(d),
- (c) an auditor or former auditor described in subrule (1)(e),
- (d) a partner or former partner of a partnership referred to in subrule (1)(f), or
- (e) an employee, former employee, officer or former officer described in subrule (1)(g)(iii), other than a corporate representative, the costs of questioning the second and subsequent persons are to be paid by the questioning party unless

- (f) the parties otherwise agree, or
- (g) the Court otherwise orders.

(3) This rule applies whether the person to be questioned is within or outside the Court's jurisdiction.

Information note

The Class Proceedings Act contains limitations on who can be questioned when the action is a proceeding under that Act.

Persons providing services to corporation or partnership

5.18(1) Subject to subrules (2) and (3), if

- (a) a party cannot obtain relevant and material information from an officer or employee or a former officer or former employee of a corporation or partnership that is a party adverse in interest,

- (b) it would be unfair to require the party seeking the information to proceed to trial without having the opportunity to ask questions about the information sought, and
- (c) the questioning will not cause undue hardship, expense or delay to, or unfairness to, any other party or to the person to be questioned, the party may question, under oath, a person who has provided services for the corporation or partnership and who can provide the best evidence on the issue.

(2) A person described in subrule (1) may be questioned only

- (a) by written agreement of the parties, or
- (b) with the Court's permission.

(3) An expert engaged by a party for the purposes of the action may not be questioned under this rule.

(4) Evidence from a person questioned under this rule is to be treated as if it were evidence of an employee of the corporation or partnership.

(5) The costs related to questioning a person under this rule are to be borne by the questioning party unless

- (a) the parties otherwise agree, or
- (b) the Court otherwise orders.

AR 124/2010 s5.18;36/2020

Limit or cancellation of questioning

5.19 On application, the Court may do either or both of the following:

- (a) limit the number of persons subject to questioning by a party;
- (b) cancel an appointment for questioning that the Court considers unnecessary, improper or vexatious.

When questioning is to take place

5.20(1) Unless the parties otherwise agree, or the Court in exceptional circumstances otherwise orders, a party may not question a party or person under this Division unless the questioning party has served an affidavit of records on the party adverse in interest.

(2) Subject to subrule (1), the questioning of a person is to take place as follows:

- (a) questioning by the plaintiff, at any time after
 - (i) a statement of defence has been served on the plaintiff, or
 - (ii) the time for serving the statement of defence has expired;
- (b) questioning by the defendant and every other party, at any time after a statement of defence has been served.

Appointment for questioning

5.21(1) A party may question a person whom the party is entitled to question under this Part by serving on the person a notice of appointment for questioning in Form 29.

(2) Rules 6.16 [Contents of appointment notice] to 6.19 [Interpreters] and 6.38 [Requiring attendance for questioning] apply for the purposes of subrule (1) with one modification, namely, unless the parties otherwise agree, the notice of appointment for questioning must be served 20 days or more before the appointment date.

Questioning options

5.22 Subject to rule 5.24 [Oral and written questioning limitations], questioning may be conducted

- (a) orally, under oath, or
- (b) by written questions, answered under oath, subject to the limitations of rule 5.28 [Written questions].

Preparation for questioning

5.23 A person to be questioned under this Division, other than a corporate representative, must

- (a) reasonably prepare for questioning, and
- (b) bring to the questioning any records likely to be required in respect of which there is no claim of privilege.

Information note

Note that a person to be questioned under this rule must reasonably prepare himself or herself while a corporate representative must inform himself or herself of relevant and material records and relevant and material information under rule 5.4(2) [Appointment of corporate representatives].

Oral and written questioning limitations

5.24 Unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise orders,

- (a) if more than one party is entitled to question a person, the questioning must be oral, and
- (b) a party may not question a person both orally and by written questioning.

Appropriate questions and objections

5.25(1) During questioning, a person is required to answer only

- (a) relevant and material questions, and
- (b) questions in respect of which an objection is not upheld under subrule (2).

- (2) A party or a witness being questioned may object to an oral or written question during questioning but only for one or more of the following reasons:
- (a) privilege;
 - (b) the question is not relevant and material;
 - (c) the question is unreasonable or unnecessary;
 - (d) any other ground recognized at law.
- (3) A corporate representative may object to an oral or written question during questioning on the basis that it would be unduly onerous for the corporate representative to inform himself or herself in the circumstances.
- (4) If an objection to a question cannot be resolved the Court must decide its validity.
- (5) After the questioning party has finished questioning a person, that person may be questioned by the party for whom the person is or may be a witness to explain, elaborate or provide context for an answer initially given.
- (6) Following answers to the explanatory, elaborative or contextual questions, the person may be questioned again about the person's answers.

Information note

The Court has a broad range of powers to deal with situations in which the expense or difficulty of complying with a rule would be disproportional to its benefit. For example, rule 5.3 [Modification or waiver of this Part] and the Court's power under rule 1.4 [Procedural orders].

If there is non-compliance with a rule, a costs award may be made and rule 10.49 [Penalty for contravening the rules] would apply.

Transcript of oral questioning

- 5.26(1) Oral questioning under this Part must be recorded word for word by a person qualified to do so
- (a) by a method that is capable of producing a written transcript, and
 - (b) in a manner agreed on by the parties or directed by the Court.
- (2) The questioning party must make necessary arrangements to record the questioning.
- (3) Exhibits produced at the questioning must, unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court,
- (a) be incorporated in or attached to the transcript, or
 - (b) be produced at the trial of the action without a notice to produce.
- (4) The person recording the oral questioning must

- (a) keep in safe custody the recorded questioning,
- (b) if required to do so, honestly and accurately transcribe the recorded questioning and deliver a copy of the transcript, as required, and
- (c) on or attached to any transcript
 - (i) state the person's name,
 - (ii) specify the date and place where the questioning occurred, and
 - (iii) certify the transcript, or the portion of the questioning transcribed, as complete and accurate.

(5) A person is qualified to record and transcribe oral questioning under this Part if the person is

- (a) an official court reporter,
- (b) a person appointed by the Court as an examiner under the Alberta Rules of Court (AR 390/68), or
- (c) a shorthand writer, sworn to record the questioning word for word and to impartially fulfill the duties imposed by subrule (4), who
 - (i) is an agent or employee of an official court reporter or an examiner, or
 - (ii) has been approved by the parties.

Continuing duty to disclose

5.27(1) A person who is or has been questioned must, by affidavit, correct an answer if

- (a) the answer was incorrect or misleading, or
- (b) the answer becomes incorrect or misleading as a result of new information.

(2) The correcting affidavit must be made and served on each of the other parties as soon as practicable after the person realizes that the answer was or has become incorrect or misleading.

Written questions

5.28(1) Unless the Court otherwise orders or the parties otherwise agree, the following rules apply with respect to written questions and the answers to them:

- (a) the written questions must be numbered and succinct;
- (b) the answers provided to the questions must be given by affidavit and must state the question being answered;
- (c) the party being questioned must serve the answers to the questions on each of the other parties within a time agreed on by the parties or ordered by the Court.

(2) A party is entitled to ask

- (a) one set of follow-up written questions as a result of the answers to the initial written questions, or
- (b) follow-up oral questions if agreed by the parties.

(3) If the answers to the written questions or the answers to the follow-up written or follow-up oral questions are unsatisfactory, the questioning party may apply to the Court for an order for either or both of the following:

- (a) oral or further oral questioning;
- (b) further written questions to be answered.

AR 124/2010 s5.28;140/2013

Acknowledgment of corporate witness's evidence

5.29(1) The evidence given by a corporate witness during questioning may not be read in as evidence at trial unless a corporate representative of the corporation, under oath, acknowledges that the evidence forms some of the information of the corporation.

(2) Subject to subrule (3), the corporate representative may refuse to acknowledge some or all of the evidence of the corporate witness and, if so, must state why, but is not entitled to refuse to acknowledge the corporate witness's information just because the corporate representative disbelieves or disagrees with it.

(3) If the corporate representative disbelieves or disagrees with some or all of the evidence of a corporate witness, the corporate representative

- (a) must acknowledge the evidence as information of the corporation unless it is inadmissible under the laws of evidence, and
- (b) may then qualify the acknowledgment with further evidence that is contrary to or inconsistent with the corporate witness's evidence if the further evidence is based on either or both of the following:
 - (i) the corporate representative's personal knowledge;
 - (ii) a record prepared by the corporate representative or provided to the corporate representative by a person having personal knowledge of the issue in question.

Undertakings

5.30(1) If, during questioning, a person answering questions

- (a) does not know the answer to a question but would have known the answer if the person had reasonably prepared for questioning, or if as a corporate representative the person had reasonably informed himself or herself, or
- (b) has under the person's control a relevant and material record that is not privileged,

the person must undertake to inform himself or herself and provide an answer, or produce the record, within a reasonable time.

(2) After the undertaking has been discharged, the person who gave the undertaking may be questioned on the answer given or record provided.

Information Note

Undertakings should be answered in a reasonable time, and the witnesses should generally not delay responding until every undertaking can be answered. The questioner is expected to indicate within a reasonable time whether the undertaking is responsive to the question, and whether the questioner intends to question further on the undertaking. Further questioning should proceed when the undertakings are substantially answered, even if some undertakings remain outstanding, and even if questioning is not completed.

Use of transcript and answers to written questions

5.31(1) Subject to rule 5.29 [Acknowledgment of corporate witness's evidence], a party may use in support of an application or proceeding or at trial as against a party adverse in interest any of the evidence of that other party in a transcript of questioning under rule 5.17 [People who can be questioned] or 5.18 [Persons providing services to a corporation or partnership] and any of the evidence in the answers of that other party to written questions under rule 5.28 [Written questions].

(2) Evidence referred to in subrule (1) is evidence only of the questioning party who uses the transcript evidence or the answers to the written questions, and is evidence only against the party who was questioned.

(3) If only a portion of a transcript or a portion of the answers to the written questions is used, the Court may, on application, direct that all or each other portion of the transcript or answers also be used if all or any other portion is so connected with the portion used that it would or might be misleading not to use all or any other portion of the transcript or other answers.

Information note

Rule 8.14 [Unavailable or unwilling witness], in the limited circumstances described in that rule, permits transcript evidence under this Part to be admitted as evidence.

When information may be used

5.32 The transcript of questioning, including exhibits, made under this Division, an affidavit of records, affidavits and answers to written questions, and correcting affidavits under this Division

- (a) must not be filed and must not be put before the Court except during an application, proceeding or at trial, and
- (b) may be filed and put before the Court only as permitted by these rules, in which case the person relying on the documents filed must provide the material in writing or in any other form permitted by the Court.

Confidentiality and use of information

5.33(1) The information and records described in subrule (2) must be treated as confidential and may only be used by the recipient of the information or record for the purpose of carrying on the action in which the information or record was provided or disclosed unless

- (a) the Court otherwise orders,
- (b) the parties otherwise agree, or
- (c) otherwise required or permitted by law.

(2) For the purposes of subrule (1) the information and records are:

- (a) information provided or disclosed by one party to another in an affidavit served under this Division;
- (b) information provided or disclosed by one party to another in a record referred to in an affidavit served under this Division;
- (c) information recorded in a transcript of questioning made or in answers to written questions given under this Division.

Division 2 Experts and Expert Reports

Service of expert's report

5.34 An expert's report must

- (a) be in Form 25 and contain the information required by the form, or any modification agreed on by the parties, and
- (b) be served in the sequence required by rule 5.35 [Sequence of exchange of experts' reports].

Information note

The court clerk cannot schedule a trial date under rule 8.4 [Trial date: scheduled by court clerk] unless expert reports, if needed, have been exchanged. See also rule 8.5 [Trial date: scheduled by the judge], which provides for a trial date to be scheduled by the Court.

Sequence of exchange of experts' reports

5.35(1) If a party intends to use the evidence of an expert at trial, the expert's report must be served in the sequence described in subrule (2).

(2) Unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise orders, experts' reports on which a party intends to rely must be served in the following sequence:

- (a) the party who bears the primary onus of proof must serve on each of the other parties the report of that party's expert;
- (b) the other party or parties must serve their expert's rebuttal report, if any, and may include in the report issues not raised in the initial expert's report;
- (c) the party who served the initial expert's report may serve a surrebuttal expert's report that responds only to the new issues raised in the rebuttal report.

Objection to expert's report

5.36(1) A party who receives an expert's report must notify the party serving the report of

- (a) any objection to the admissibility of the expert's report that the party receiving the report intends to raise at trial, and
- (b) the reasons for the objection.

(2) No objection to the admissibility of an expert's report is permitted at trial unless

- (a) reasonable notice of the objection was given to the other party, or
- (b) the Court permits the objection to be made.

Questioning experts before trial

5.37(1) The parties may agree, or in exceptional circumstances the Court may direct, that an expert be questioned by any party adverse in interest to the party proposing to call the expert witness at trial.

(2) The questioning must be limited to the expert's report.

(3) The Court may impose conditions about questioning with respect to all or any of the following:

- (a) limiting the length of questioning;
- (b) specifying the place where the questioning is to take place;
- (c) directing payment of costs incurred;
- (d) any other matter concerning the questioning.

(4) Evidence of an expert under this Division is to be treated as if it were evidence of an employee of the party who intends to rely on the expert's report.

Continuing obligation on expert

5.38 If, after an expert's report has been provided by one party to another, the expert changes his or her opinion on a matter in the report, the change of opinion must be

- (a) disclosed by the expert in writing, and
- (b) immediately served on each of the other parties.

Use of expert's report at trial without expert

5.39(1) A party serving an expert's report may, at the same time, also serve notice of intention to have the report entered as evidence without calling the expert as a witness.

(2) If a party serves a notice of intention under subrule (1), no objection may be made at trial to entering the expert's report as evidence unless, within 2 months after service of the notice under subrule (1), any other party serves a statement on the party serving the notice of intention

- (a) setting out all or parts of the report that that other party objects to being entered as evidence under this rule, and giving reasons for the objection, or
- (b) serving on the party a request that the expert attend the trial for cross-examination.

(3) Agreeing to have the expert's report entered as evidence without calling the expert as a witness, either explicitly or by allowing subrule (2) to operate without objection, is not an admission of the truth or correctness of the expert's report.

Expert's attendance at trial

5.40(1) A party who agrees to have all of an expert's report entered in evidence at trial, either explicitly or by allowing rule 5.39(2) [Use of expert's report at trial without expert] to operate without objection, may, at the same time as responding to the notice of intention, serve a request that the expert be in attendance at trial for cross-examination.

(2) The expert whose entire report is to be entered at trial must not give oral evidence at trial unless

- (a) a request that the expert attend for cross-examination has been served, or
- (b) the Court permits.

(3) The party who requests an expert's attendance for cross-examination must pay the costs of the expert's attendance, determined under Schedule B [Court Fees and Witness and Other Allowances], unless the Court is satisfied that the cross-examination is of sufficient assistance to warrant a different order about who is to pay those costs.

(4) If the party proposing to enter the expert's report receives a request that the expert attend for cross-examination, the party proposing to enter the report may question the expert at trial.

Division 3

(4) If a party refuses to provide a report in the manner described in subrule (3), the Court may order the report to be provided, and if the health care professional refuses to make the report in writing, the Court may make any order it considers proper, one of the provisions of which may be the exclusion of the health care professional's evidence if that person's evidence is offered at trial.

Division 9 Interpleader

Definitions

6.54 In this Division,

- (a) “applicant” means an originating applicant or applicant for an interpleader order, as the context requires;
- (b) “application for an interpleader order” means an application filed under rule 6.56 [Application for interpleader order], whether an originating application or an application;
- (c) “claimant” means a person who files or is expected to file an adverse claim against personal property;
- (d) “instructing creditor” has the same meaning as it has in the Civil Enforcement Act;
- (e) “personal property” includes a debt;
- (f) “related writ” has the same meaning as it has in the Civil Enforcement Act;
- (g) “writ proceedings” has the same meaning as it has in the Civil Enforcement Act.

Nature of application for interpleader order

6.55(1) An application for an interpleader order must be filed

- (a) as an originating application if the applicant is not a party to an action respecting the personal property that is the subject of the application, or
- (b) as an application if the applicant is a party to an action respecting the personal property.

(2) An application for an interpleader order or an application to determine the rights of the various claimants may be filed under rule 6.56 [Application for interpleader order] and an order may be made even if the respondent to the application has provided security or an indemnity to the applicant.

Application for interpleader order

6.56(1) A person may apply to the Court for an interpleader order in respect of personal property if

- (a) 2 or more claimants have filed or are expected to file adverse claims in respect of the personal property, and
- (b) the applicant
 - (i) claims no beneficial interest in the personal property, other than a lien for costs, fees or expenses, and
 - (ii) is willing to deposit the personal property with the Court or dispose of it as the Court orders.

- (2) An application for an interpleader order in Form 34 must be filed and served on all the claimants and must direct those claimants to
- (a) appear before the Court, and
 - (b) state the nature and particulars of their claim.
- (3) The applicant must file an affidavit in support of the application.

Interpleader applicant not disentitled

6.57 An applicant for an interpleader order is not disentitled to a remedy solely because the titles of the claimants to personal property do not have a common origin but are adverse to and independent of one another.

Interpleader order

- 6.58(1) On hearing an application for an interpleader order the Court may do any one or more of the following:
- (a) determine, summarily or otherwise, any issue;
 - (b) direct a trial of an issue specifying
 - (i) which party will be plaintiff or applicant and which party will be defendant or respondent, and
 - (ii) the pleadings, affidavits or documents to be filed;
 - (c) declare any party to be owner of the personal property;
 - (d) direct or otherwise provide for the satisfaction or payment of a lien or charges of the applicant;
 - (e) make a procedural order or any other order that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances, including
 - (i) giving directions to the applicant,
 - (ii) a declaration as to the liability of a person, and
 - (iii) a release or extinguishment of liability of a person.

- (2) If a claimant
- (a) does not appear at the hearing of the application after having been served with a notice to attend, or
 - (b) having appeared, does not comply with an order,

the Court may make an order declaring the claimant and all persons claiming under the claimant to be barred from taking further interpleader proceedings as against the plaintiff or applicant and as against all persons claiming under the plaintiff or applicant.

- (3) An order under subrule (2) does not affect the rights of claimants as between themselves.

Civil enforcement agency application

6.59(1) If a civil enforcement agency or other person charged with carrying out writ proceedings or acting under the Court's authority receives from one or more persons a claim, other than an objection under the Civil Enforcement Act, with respect to personal property under seizure pursuant to the Civil Enforcement Act, the civil enforcement agency or that other interested person may apply to the Court for an interpleader order.

(2) If a civil enforcement agency receives a claim for which the civil enforcement agency may apply for an interpleader order, instead of initially proceeding under subrule (1), the civil enforcement agency may do the following:

- (a) the civil enforcement agency may by written notice in Form 35 served on the instructing creditor direct the instructing creditor to apply to the Court to determine the rights of the various claimants;
- (b) if an instructing creditor on whom a written notice is served under clause (a) fails to apply to the Court in accordance with the notice, the civil enforcement agency may by written notice served on the holders of related writs direct the holders of the related writs to apply to the Court for an order determining the rights of the various claimants;
- (c) if neither the instructing creditor nor the holder of a related writ on whom a notice is served under this subrule obtains an order determining the rights of the various claimants, the civil enforcement agency may
 - (i) apply under subrule (1) for an interpleader order, or
 - (ii) release the personal property from seizure.

(3) If the civil enforcement agency gives a direction under subrule (2), an instructing creditor or a holder of a related writ, as the case may be, may apply to the Court for an interpleader order.

Several claims combined

6.60 If a civil enforcement agency or other person charged with carrying out writ proceedings or acting under the Court's authority intends to make an application for an interpleader order in respect of personal property against which there is more than one claim, the civil enforcement agency or that other person must, unless the Court otherwise orders,

- (a) make only one application for an interpleader order in respect of all the claims, and
- (b) join all the judgment creditors as parties to the application for the interpleader order.

Enforcement from different courts

6.61 If there are writs arising out of judgments or orders from more than one court against the same personal property, whether on behalf of the same or different plaintiffs or applicants,

- (a) any application for an interpleader order must be filed, and
- (b) the Court, after the applications are made, must dispose of the whole matter as if all of the writs against the personal property had been issued from the Court.

Claim by third person

6.62 If a third person who is neither a judgment debtor nor a judgment creditor of a judgment debtor makes a claim to personal property that is seized by a civil enforcement agency under civil enforcement proceedings, the third person must serve on the civil enforcement agency a written notice setting out

- (a) the claim made by the third person, and
- (b) an address for service of the third person.

Notice by civil enforcement agency

6.63(1) On being served with notice of a claim under rule 6.62 [Claims by a third person], a civil enforcement agency must immediately serve written notice of the claim on the person who instructed that civil enforcement proceedings be taken and on all other holders of related writs.

- (2) If a person on whom notice of a claim is served under subrule (1) wishes to
- (a) dispute the claim, or
 - (b) assert priority over the claim, that person must, within 20 days after service of the notice of the claim, serve on the civil enforcement agency a written notice disputing the claim or asserting priority over it.

(3) A person on whom notice of a claim is served under subrule (1) may serve on the civil enforcement agency a written notice stating that the person admits or does not dispute the claim.

(4) Despite subrule (3), a person on whom notice of a claim is served under subrule (1) is presumed to admit the claim if that person does not, within 20 days after service of the notice, serve on the civil enforcement agency a written notice disputing the claim.

(5) If a civil enforcement agency has served notice of a claim under subrule (1) and is satisfied that none of the persons on whom the notice is served is disputing the claim, the civil enforcement agency may release from seizure the personal property in respect of which the claim was made.

(6) If the person who instructed that the proceedings be taken does not dispute the claim but another person on whom notice of a claim is served under subrule (1) does dispute the claim, that other person may instruct the civil enforcement agency to continue seizure of the personal property.

(7) On receiving instructions from another person under subrule (6) to continue a seizure, the civil enforcement agency must continue the seizure if that other person pays the appropriate fees, if any, and meets any other conditions that a civil enforcement agency may impose on a person who is an instructing creditor.

Security interest

6.64 If a person claims to have a security interest in personal property that has been seized under civil enforcement proceedings, the Court may

- (a) order that the personal property be sold and the proceeds of the sale be applied to discharge the amount due to the claimant if the sale and application of the proceeds of the sale are not disputed,
- (b) order that sufficient money to answer the claim be paid into Court pending disposition of the claim, or
- (c) make any other order that the Court considers appropriate.

Expeditious sale

6.65 At any time during an application for an interpleader order the Court, on application, may order that

- (a) a civil enforcement agency expeditiously sell or dispose of personal property if the Court considers it appropriate to do so, and
- (b) the proceeds of the sale or disposal of the personal property, less any reasonable costs of the sale or disposal, take the place of the personal property that was sold or disposed of.

- (c) make a determination on a question of law, or

- (b) a judge alone, or
- (c) a judge alone at a streamlined trial under Division 5 [Streamlined Trial].

Division 1.1 Jury Trial

Request for jury trial

8.2(1) An application for a jury trial under section 17 of the Jury Act must be made

- (a) by written request to the Chief Justice, and
- (b) before an application is made to the court clerk or a judge to set a trial date.

(2) The request for a jury trial must be accompanied with an affidavit that addresses the following issues to the extent that they are applicable:

- (a) whether expert evidence will be called, and if so, how many experts are expected to be called;
- (b) the areas of knowledge or experience on which the experts will give evidence;
- (c) whether interpreters will be required;
- (d) the number of court days required for the trial if a jury trial is ordered.

(3) The Chief Justice may fix a time for the hearing of an application for a jury trial and may make any directions as to the filing of materials as the Chief Justice considers appropriate.

(4) If the Chief Justice grants an order directing that a trial be by jury, the order may be with or without conditions and must set the number of days to be initially reserved for the jury trial.

(5) Within one month after an order is granted directing that a trial be by jury, the parties must apply to the Chief Justice for appointment of a case management judge.

Information note

Section 17 of the Jury Act sets out the right to a jury trial. It reads:

Right to jury in civil proceeding

17(1) Subject to subsections (1.1) and (2), on application by a party to the proceeding, the following shall be tried by a jury:

- (a) an action for defamation, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, seduction or breach of promise for marriage,
- (b) an action founded on any tort or contract in which the amount claimed exceeds an amount prescribed by regulation, or
- (c) an action for the recovery of property the value of which exceeds an amount prescribed by regulation.

(1.1) If, on an application made under subsection (1) or on a subsequent application, a judge considers it appropriate, the judge may direct that the proceeding be tried by judge alone pursuant to the streamlined trial procedure set out in the Alberta Rules of Court.

(2) If, on a motion for directions or on a subsequent application, it appears that the trial might involve

- (a) a prolonged examination of documents or accounts, or
- (b) a scientific or long investigation,

that in the opinion of a judge cannot conveniently be made by a jury, the judge may, notwithstanding that the proceeding has been directed to be tried by a jury, direct that the proceeding be tried without a jury.

(3) In this section, “proceeding” includes a counterclaim.

Deposit for jury

8.3(1) When the Chief Justice grants an order directing that a trial be by jury, the party who made the request must, unless otherwise ordered, within 10 days after the date the order was granted, deposit with the court clerk a sum of money that the court clerk considers sufficient to pay the jury’s expenses, and if that sum is later determined to be insufficient, on notice from the court clerk, pay any further sum that the court clerk determines in accordance with the Jury Act Regulation (AR 68/83).

(2) Any money remaining after the court clerk pays the jury’s expenses must be returned to the person who paid it.

(6) If the court clerk is satisfied that the parties will or are likely to be ready by the proposed trial date, the court clerk may schedule a trial date, but if the court clerk is in doubt about any matter, the court clerk must refer the matter to a judge for directions or decision.

Trial date: scheduled by the judge

8.5(1) On application by a party in Form 38, the judge may set a trial date or direct the court clerk to do so if

Division 4 Procedure at Trial

Order of presentation

8.10(1) Unless the Court directs otherwise, the order of presentation at a trial is as follows:

- (a) the plaintiff may make one opening statement and, subject to clause (b), must then adduce evidence;
- (b) the defendant may make one opening statement either immediately after the plaintiff's opening statement and before the plaintiff adduces evidence or at the conclusion of the plaintiff's evidence;
- (c) when the plaintiff's evidence is concluded, the defendant may make an opening statement if the defendant has not already done so immediately after the plaintiff's opening statement, and the defendant must then adduce evidence, if any;
- (d) when the defendant's evidence is concluded, the plaintiff may adduce evidence, if any, to rebut the defendant's evidence;
- (e) when the defendant's evidence and the plaintiff's rebuttal evidence, if any, are concluded, the plaintiff may make a closing statement, followed by the defendant's closing statement, after which the plaintiff may reply;
- (f) if the defendant adduces no evidence after the conclusion of the plaintiff's evidence, the plaintiff may make a closing statement, followed by the defendant's closing statement, after which the plaintiff may reply.

(2) If the burden of proof for all matters in issue in the action is on the defendant, the judge may direct a different order of presentation.

(3) If there are 2 or more plaintiffs or 2 or more defendants separately represented, the judge must determine the order of presentation.

Absence of witnesses at trial

8.11 If a person who is served with a notice to attend at trial as a witness, with or without records, does not do so, the Court may

- (a) give judgment or make an order against the party whose witness does not attend,
- (b) continue the trial in the absence of the witness, or
- (c) adjourn the trial.

Exclusion of witnesses

8.12(1) Subject to subrule (2), the judge may exclude a witness from the courtroom, other than a party who may be called as a witness, until the witness is called to give evidence.

(2) A witness whose presence is essential to instruct a lawyer in a trial may not be excluded from the courtroom, but the judge may require that witness to give evidence before any other witnesses are called.

(3) Nothing in this rule prevents the judge from excluding from the courtroom any person who interferes with the trial.

No communication with excluded witnesses

8.13(1) If a witness is excluded from the courtroom, no person may communicate with the witness about evidence given at trial during the time that the witness is excluded, except with permission of the judge.

(2) If there is communication with a witness contrary to subrule (1), the judge may strike out or disregard all or part of the evidence of the witness or prohibit the witness from giving evidence.

Unavailable or unwilling witness

8.14(1) Subject to subrules (2) and (3), a party may, with the judge's permission, read into evidence all or part of the evidence given at questioning conducted under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information] as the evidence of the person questioned, to the extent that it would be admissible if the person were giving evidence in Court, if the person questioned

- (a) is dead,
- (b) is unable to give evidence before the Court because of accident, ill health or disability,
- (c) refuses to take an oath or to answer proper questions, or
- (d) for any other sufficient reason cannot be required to attend at the trial.

(2) Before deciding whether to give permission, the judge must consider

- (a) the general principle that evidence should be presented orally in court,
 - (b) how thoroughly the person was questioned under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information], and
 - (c) any other appropriate factor.
- (3) The judge may grant permission under this rule only if
- (a) the fact or facts sought to be proved through the questioning under Part 5 [Disclosure of Information] are important aspects of the party's case,
 - (b) the fact or facts cannot be proved in any other manner, and
 - (c) the permission is restricted to the portion or portions of the questioning that relate to the fact or facts.

Information note

See rule 5.31 [Use of transcript and answers to written questions] for when transcript evidence may be used.

Notice of persons not intended to be called as witnesses

8.15(1) When an adverse inference might be drawn from the failure of a party to call a person as a witness, that party may serve on every other party a notice of the names of those persons that the party does not intend to call as witnesses.

(2) The notice must be served one month or more before the date the trial is scheduled to start.

(3) The party on whom the notice is served may serve on the party who served the notice, within 10 days after service of the notice, a statement setting out any objection to the intention not to call a person as a witness.

(4) If the party on whom the notice is served does not respond to the notice of intention not to call a person as a witness, the failure to call that person as a witness is not to be considered to be adverse to the case of the party who served the notice.

(5) When a party objects to the notice of intention not to call a person, the cost of calling that person as a witness must be paid by the party who objects, regardless of the result of the claim, issue or question, unless the Court decides that the objection is reasonable.

Number of experts

8.16(1) Unless the Court otherwise permits, no more than one expert is permitted to give opinion evidence on any one subject on behalf of a party.

(2) If 2 or more corporate parties are affiliates within the meaning of the term "affiliate" in the Business Corporations Act and the corporate parties cannot agree, the Court may direct which of the corporate parties may call an expert witness.

Proving facts

8.17(1) A fact to be proved at trial by the evidence of a witness must be proved by questioning the witness in Court unless

- (a) these rules or an enactment otherwise requires or permits,
- (b) the parties agree to that fact, or
- (c) the Court otherwise orders.

(2) The Court may not order that a fact be proved by affidavit evidence of a witness if

- (a) a party, for good reason, wishes to cross-examine the witness, and
- (b) the witness may be required to attend the trial.

(3) Evidence taken in any other action may be presented at trial but only if the party proposing to submit the evidence gives each of the other parties written notice of that party's intention 5 days or more before the trial is scheduled to start and obtains the Court's permission to submit the evidence.

Information note

Rule 5.31 [Use of transcript and answers to written questions] is an example of when a rule permits transcript evidence to be used.

Trial conducted by electronic hearing

8.18 On application under rule 6.10 [Electronic hearings], the Court may permit an electronic hearing.

Use of trial evidence in subsequent proceedings

8.19 Evidence at trial may be used in a subsequent application or subsequent proceedings in that action.

Application for dismissal at close of plaintiff's case

8.20 At the close of the plaintiff's case, the defendant may request the Court to dismiss the action on the ground that no case has been made, without being asked to elect whether evidence will be called.

Retrials

8.21(1) The Court may order that a claim be retried if the jury

- (a) is unable to reach a verdict,
- (b) does not answer any question put to it or answers only some of the questions, or
- (c) gives conflicting answers to questions so that judgment cannot be pronounced.

(2) If answers given by a jury entitle a party to judgment on some but not all claims, the Court may order judgment to be entered in respect of those claims for which answers are given.

Continuing trial without jury

8.22(1) If for any reason other than the misconduct of a party or the party's lawyer a jury trial would be retried, the Court, with the agreement of all parties, may continue the trial without a jury.

(2) If the misconduct of a party or the party's lawyer during a jury trial could cause a retrial, the Court, with the agreement of every party adverse in interest to the party whose conduct or whose lawyer's conduct is complained of, may continue the trial without a jury.

Judgment after jury trial

8.23(1) When considering an application for judgment following a jury trial, the Court may

- (a) pronounce judgment, or
- (b) make any order it considers necessary to obtain the information to pronounce judgment.

(2) In pronouncing judgment, the Court may draw inferences of fact that are not inconsistent with the jury's findings.

Accidents and mistakes

8.24(1) If by an accident, mistake or other cause a party does not prove a fact or record important to the party's case, the Court may

- (a) proceed with the trial subject to the fact or record being proved as ordered by the Court, or
- (b) if the action is being tried by a jury, make an order under subrule (2).

(2) The Court may

- (a) adjourn the jury sittings, or
- (b) if the fact or record is one the formal proof of which could not seriously be challenged,
 - (i) the Court may direct the jury to find a verdict as if the fact or record had been proved, and
 - (ii) the jury's verdict then takes effect when the fact or record is proved before the Court.

(3) If a fact or record is not proved as referred to in subrule (2)(b)(ii), judgment must be entered for the opposite party unless the Court otherwise orders.

(4) The Court may make a costs award with respect to any issue arising out of or as a result of the operation of this rule.

Division 5 Streamlined Trial

Use of streamlined trial

8.25(1) The Court, on application by a party or on the Court's own motion, may order or direct that a court action be resolved by a streamlined trial if the Court is satisfied that

- (a) it is necessary for the purpose of the action to be fairly and justly resolved, and
- (b) it is proportionate to the importance and complexity of the issues, the amounts involved and the resources that can reasonably be allocated to resolving the dispute.

(2) An order or direction under subrule (1) may be made at any time, including in chambers, at a case conference meeting or case management meeting, at an application for judgment or at any other appearance.

(3) A streamlined trial shall not be considered as a disproportionate process solely because

- (a) issues of credibility may arise,
- (b) some oral evidence may be required at the trial,
- (c) cross-examination of some witnesses may be required, or
- (d) expert evidence may be introduced.

AR 126/2023 s11

Application for streamlined trial

8.26(1) An application for a streamlined trial must be made

- (a) by filing the application in Form 36 and serving the application on the other parties,
- (b) by submitting a written request to the Court, accompanied with a proposed consent order directing a streamlined trial, agreed to by all parties,
- (c) by making a request through the case management process, or
- (d) as directed by the Court.

(2) At any case conference or on an application under this Division, the judge may

- (a) direct that the trial proceed, in whole or part, as a streamlined trial or a trial,
- (b) make a procedural order, including an order that the evidence of any potential witness be taken before trial, or an order for security for costs, and

- (c) give any other direction to further the purpose and intention of the rules set out in this Division and rule 1.2 [Purpose and intention of these rules].

AR 126/2023 s11

Information note

To set a matter for streamlined trial, an order or direction from the court is required. While the parties may agree that the streamlined trial process is desirable to resolve the dispute, the court must be satisfied that the action is appropriate for streamlined trial, in accordance with the factors set out in subrule 8.25(1).

Dispute over mode of trial

8.27(1) Any dispute about the mode of trial shall be resolved in a summary manner, relying on

- (a) the pleadings,
- (b) statements by the parties of the issues to be resolved at the streamlined trial,
- (c) outlines of the evidence that would be called at the streamlined trial, and
- (d) other relevant information, if any.

(2) If the case conference judge or trial judge concludes that an objection to the use of the streamlined trial was unjustified, the case conference judge or trial judge, as the case may be, may do one or more of the following:

- (a) make a procedural order;
- (b) make a costs award for costs incurred as a result of the objection;
- (c) impose a penalty under rule 10.49 [Penalty for contravening rules].

AR 126/2023 s11

Preparing record

8.28 The parties have a joint responsibility to prepare the record for a streamlined trial to ensure an efficient adjudication, including by

- (a) identifying the real issues in dispute,
- (b) agreeing on relevant and material facts and records that are not in dispute,
- (c) ensuring that only the relevant and material evidence necessary to resolve the dispute is contained in the trial record, and
- (d) organizing the record and the evidence to expedite the streamlined trial and assist the trial judge.

AR 126/2023 s11

Scheduling of streamlined trials

8.29(1) Unless otherwise provided for in the streamlined trial order or a procedural order, a streamlined trial shall be scheduled in accordance with Division 2 [Scheduling of Trial Dates] using Form 37, with all necessary modifications.

(2) Where required by the streamlined trial order, a procedural order or a practice note, the parties to a streamlined trial must participate in an alternative dispute resolution process in accordance with rule 4.16 [Dispute resolution processes].

(3) When estimating the trial time needed for a streamlined trial, the parties shall include sufficient preparation time prior to the commencement of the trial for the trial judge to review the streamlined trial record.

(4) No later than three months prior to the streamlined trial, the parties must schedule a pretrial conference or a conference under rule 4.10 [Assistance by the Court] to confirm readiness for trial and the amount of trial time required and to resolve any other issue related to the management of the streamlined trial.

(5) The parties shall confirm the scheduled streamlined trial date in accordance with rule 8.7 [Confirmation of trial date].

AR 126/2023 s11

Procedure at streamlined trial

8.30(1) The rules in Divisions 3 [Attendance of Witnesses at Trial] and 4 [Procedure at Trial] apply to streamlined trials, with all necessary modifications and subject to the streamlined trial order, any procedural order made by the streamlined trial judge or any practice note.

(2) Subject to rule 13.18(3) [Types of affidavit], the rules of evidence and any contrary direction, evidence at a streamlined trial shall be entered by affidavit.

(3) Unless the Chief Justice otherwise directs, if a streamlined trial is adjourned after the scheduled commencement of the trial, the assigned trial judge shall remain seized of the action.

- (a) the nature, importance and urgency of the matter,
- (b) the client's circumstances,

10.3(1) A lawyer may charge lawyer's fees for services performed as a lawyer whether or not the lawyer is also acting in the capacity of a guardian, mortgagee, personal representative or trustee.

(2) Despite subrule (1), a lawyer acting as a guardian, mortgagee, personal representative or trustee is not entitled to be paid out of or to charge to a trust, an estate, a fund, mortgaged property or a mortgage loan for which the lawyer performs lawyer's services unless

 - (i) the action conducted by the lawyer on the client's behalf, and
 - (ii) the lawyer's services result in the recovery or preservation of the client's property.

(3) An order may also be made under this rule if

- (a) a lawyer who performed services for a client in the recovery or preservation of property under a contingency fee agreement ceases to be the client's lawyer before the event or contingency occurs and those services are likely to, or might, result in the recovery or preservation of the client's property, and

- (6) Nothing defeats or affects a charge on property imposed under this rule unless the property is disposed of to a bona fide purchaser for value without notice of the charge.

Subdivision 2 Retainer Agreements

(2) Despite any agreement to the contrary, a client may change the client's lawyer or act on the client's own behalf before a retainer agreement ends.

- (6) If a contingency fee agreement provides that a lawyer is entitled to an amount from a costs award, the lawyer is not entitled to receive from the costs award any higher percentage of the judgment or settlement than the lawyer is entitled to receive under the contingency fee agreement.

- (7) Every account rendered under a contingency fee agreement must contain a statement that at the client's request a review officer may determine both the reasonableness of the account and the reasonableness of the contingency fee agreement.
- (8) An account that does not contain the statement required by subrule (7) is of no effect unless the Court
- (a) is satisfied
 - (i) that the omission of the statement was inadvertent, and
 - (ii) the client has not been misled or prejudiced,
 - and

- (g) any other event that creates uncertainty about a lawyer's charges or who is to pay them or to whom they are to be paid.

(2) When making a decision under this rule, the review officer must take into consideration the factors described in rule 10.2 [Payment for lawyer's services and contents of lawyer's account], except to the extent that a retainer agreement otherwise provides.

Order to return records

10.25 On application by a client, the Court may order a lawyer to deliver to a person named in the order any record of the client under the lawyer's control.

Subdivision 5 Appeal from Review Officer's Decision

Appeal to judge

10.26(1) A party to a review officer's decision under this Division may appeal the decision to a judge.

Division 2 Recoverable Costs of Litigation

Subdivision 1 General Rule, Considerations and Court Authority

Definition of "party"

10.28 In this Division, "party" includes a person filing or participating in an application or proceeding who is or may be entitled to or subject to a costs award.

Information note

Party is defined in the Appendix [\[Definitions\]](#) as a party to an action. There are other Court proceedings that are not "actions" and so the definition of party is expanded to allow a costs award against anyone participating in an application or proceeding that is not an action started by statement of claim or originating application.

General rule for payment of litigation costs

10.29(1) A successful party to an application, a proceeding or an action is entitled to a costs award against the unsuccessful party, and the unsuccessful party must pay the costs forthwith, notwithstanding the final determination of the application, proceeding or action, subject to

- (a) the Court's general discretion under rule 10.31 [Court-ordered costs award],
- (b) the assessment officer's discretion under rule 10.41 [Assessment officer's decision],
- (c) particular rules governing who is to pay costs in particular circumstances,
- (d) an enactment governing who is to pay costs in particular circumstances, and
- (e) subrule (2).

(2) If an application or proceeding is heard without notice to a party, the Court may

- (a) make a costs award with respect to the application or proceeding, or
- (b) defer making a decision on who is liable to pay the costs of the application or proceeding until every party is served with notice of the date, time and place at which the Court will consider who is liable to pay the costs.

When costs award may be made

10.30(1) Unless the Court otherwise orders or these rules otherwise provide, a costs award may be made

- (a) in respect of an application or proceeding of which a party had notice, after the application has been decided,
- (b) in respect of a settlement of an action, application or proceeding, or any part of any of them, in which it is agreed that one party will pay costs without determining the amount, and
- (c) in respect of trials and all other matters in an action, after judgment or a final order has been entered.

(2) If the Court does not make a costs award or an order for an assessment officer to assess the costs payable when an application or proceeding is decided or when judgment is pronounced or a final order is made, either party may request from an assessment officer an appointment date for an assessment of costs under rule 10.37 [Appointment for assessment].

Court-ordered costs award

10.31(1) After considering the matters described in rule 10.33 [Court considerations in making a costs award], the Court may order one party to pay to another party, as a costs award, one or a combination of the following:

- (a) the reasonable and proper costs that a party incurred to file an application, to take proceedings or to carry on an action, or that a party incurred to participate in an application, proceeding or action, or
- (b) any amount that the Court considers to be appropriate in the circumstances, including, without limitation,
 - (i) an indemnity to a party for that party's lawyer's charges, or
 - (ii) a lump sum instead of or in addition to assessed costs.

(2) Reasonable and proper costs under subrule (1)(a)

- (a) include the reasonable and proper costs that a party incurred to bring an action;
- (b) unless the Court otherwise orders, include costs incurred by a party
 - (i) in an assessment of costs before the Court, or
 - (ii) in an assessment of costs before an assessment officer;
- (c) do not include costs related to a dispute resolution process described in rule 4.16 [Dispute resolution processes] or a judicial dispute resolution process under an arrangement described in rule 4.18 [Judicial dispute resolution arrangement] unless a party engages in serious misconduct in the course of the dispute resolution process or judicial dispute resolution process;
- (d) do not include, unless the Court otherwise orders, the fees and other charges of an expert for an investigation or inquiry or the fees and other charges of an expert for assisting in the conduct of a streamlined trial or a trial.

(3) In making a costs award under subrule (1)(a), the Court may order any one or more of the following:

- (a) one party to pay to another all or part of the reasonable and proper costs with or without reference to Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees];
- (b) one party to pay to another an amount equal to a multiple, proportion or fraction of an amount set out in any column of the tariff in Division 2 of Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees] or an amount based on one column of the tariff, and to pay to another party or parties an amount based on amounts set out in the same or another column;
- (c) one party to pay to another party all or part of the reasonable and proper costs with respect to a particular issue, application or proceeding or part of an action;
- (d) one party to pay to another a percentage of assessed costs, or assessed costs up to or from a particular point in an action.

- (4) The Court may adjust the amount payable by way of deduction or set-off if the party that is liable to pay a costs award is also entitled to receive an amount under a costs award.
- (5) In appropriate circumstances, the Court may order, in a costs award, payment to a self-represented litigant of an amount or part of an amount equivalent to the fees specified in Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees].
- (6) The Court's discretion under this rule is subject to any specific requirement of these rules about who is to pay costs and what costs are to be paid.

AR 124/2010 s10.31;126/2023

Costs in class proceeding

10.32 In a proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act or in a representative action, the Court, in determining whether a costs award should be made against the unsuccessful representative party, may take into account one or more of the following factors, in addition to any other factors the Court considers appropriate:

- (a) the public interest;
- (b) whether the action involved a novel point of law;
- (c) whether the proceeding or action was a test case;
- (d) access to justice considerations.

Court considerations in making costs award

10.33(1) In making a costs award, the Court may consider all or any of the following:

- (a) the result of the action and the degree of success of each party;
- (b) the amount claimed and the amount recovered;
- (c) the importance of the issues;
- (d) the complexity of the action;
- (e) the apportionment of liability;
- (f) the conduct of a party that tended to shorten the action;
- (g) any other matter related to the question of reasonable and proper costs that the Court considers appropriate.

(2) In deciding whether to impose, deny or vary an amount in a costs award, the Court may consider all or any of the following:

- (a) the conduct of a party that was unnecessary or that unnecessarily lengthened or delayed the action or any stage or step of the action;
- (b) a party's denial of or refusal to admit anything that should have been admitted;

- (c) whether a party started separate actions for claims that should have been filed in one action or whether a party unnecessarily separated that party's defence from that of another party;
- (d) whether any application, proceeding or step in an action was unnecessary, improper or a mistake;
- (e) an irregularity in a commencement document, pleading, affidavit, notice, prescribed form or document;
- (f) a contravention of or non-compliance with these rules or an order;
- (g) whether a party has engaged in misconduct;
- (h) any offer of settlement made, regardless of whether or not the offer of settlement complies with Part 4 [Managing Litigation], Division 5 [Settlement Using Court Process].

AR 124/2010 s10.33;36/2020

Information note

The Court has complete discretion over what to order in a costs award unless a specific rule limits that discretion.

The typical starting point will be to decide what are the reasonable and proper costs incurred in carrying on litigation: see rule 10.31 [Court-ordered costs award]. Rule 10.33(1) [Court considerations in making a costs award] sets out a list of matters the Court may consider related to the litigation (degree of success, amount involved, complexity and so on) and under subrule (2) the Court may consider matters related to the conduct of the parties, including unnecessary steps or delay, misconduct, and contravention of the rules or contravention of Court orders. If the conduct of a party is found to be inappropriate, the Court can impose, deny or vary an amount that otherwise would have been allowed in the costs award.

Note that some rules have immediate costs consequences; for example, rule 5.12 [Penalty for not serving affidavit of records] contains a specific sanction for not serving an affidavit of records in accordance with the rules.

Court-ordered assessment of costs

10.34(1) The Court may order an assessment of costs by an assessment officer and may give directions to the assessment officer about the assessment.

- (2) The Court must keep a record on the court file of a direction
- (a) given to an assessment officer,
 - (b) requested by a party and refused by the Court, or
 - (c) requested by a party that the Court declines to make but leaves to an assessment officer's discretion.

Subdivision 2

(2) In cases other than those referred to in subrule (1), the amount assessed under rule 10.41 [Assessment officer's decision] as payable by one party to another must be determined by way of an appointment with an assessment officer unless the Court or the assessment officer otherwise permits.

(3) Despite subrules (1) and (2), if one party approves a bill of costs prepared by another party adverse in interest, an assessment officer must certify the bill of costs under rule 10.43 [Certification of costs payable], without change.

Appointment for assessment

10.37(1) A party entitled to payment of costs may obtain from an assessment officer an appointment date for an assessment of costs.

(2) If a party entitled to payment of costs makes the appointment, that party must, 10 days or more before the appointment date,

- (5) An assessment officer may vary a time period referred to in this rule whether or not the period has passed.

- (a) take evidence either by affidavit or orally under oath, or both;
 - (b) direct the production of records;

 - (d) give directions about how a notice of the appointment for the assessment is to be served;
 - (e) allow a party to be independently represented by a lawyer;
 - (f) require details of the services provided and disbursements or other charges claimed or require information about any other matter necessary to understand the reason for an item in the bill of costs and to decide whether the item and charge is reasonable and proper;
 - (g) validate service of the notice of the appointment or, if service is impractical or impossible, dispense with service.
- (2) An assessment officer may not conduct an assessment of costs that have previously been assessed by an assessment officer unless the Court so orders or the parties agree.

- (2) The assessment officer may do all or any of the following:
- (a) require one party to serve another party or other interested person with notice of the reference;
 - (b) specify how a reference to the Court is to be prepared and by whom;
 - (c) prescribe time limits;
 - (d) specify any other matter for the effective and efficient disposition of the reference.
- (3) On considering a question referred to it, the Court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances, including an order to enforce a direction given under rule 10.38 [Assessment officer's authority].

Absence of person served with notice of appointment for assessment

10.40 An assessment officer may, on proof of service of the notice of appointment and proposed bill of costs, proceed with the assessment of costs payable despite the absence of the person served.

Assessment officer's decision

10.41(1) Subject to an order, if any, an assessment officer may, with respect to an assessment of costs payable, determine whether the costs that a party incurred to

- (c) may fix the amount recoverable for services performed by a lawyer that are not specified or described in Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees],

 - (i) unless Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees] so permits, or
 - (ii) except in exceptional circumstances,

and

- (f) may, in exceptional circumstances, reduce an amount, or allow a fraction of an amount, if the services were incomplete or limited.

(4) If the assessment officer disallows or reduces a fee specified in Schedule C [Tariff of Recoverable Fees], the assessment officer must give reasons for doing so.

(5) If a party that is liable to pay costs is also entitled to payment of costs, the assessment officer may

- (a) adjust the amount payable by way of deduction or set-off, or

11.4 Unless the Court otherwise orders or these rules otherwise provide, a commencement document must be served in Alberta and in accordance with

Several Acts set out methods of service of documents which could be used under rule 11.4(a); for example,

When an enactment refers to service by double, single, registered or certified mail, section 24 of the Interpretation Act says that this includes “any form of mail for which the addressee or a person on behalf of the addressee is required to acknowledge receipt of the mail by providing a signature”.

Section 23 of the Interpretation Act deals with presumption of service of documents served under an enactment.

Sections 43 to 48 of the Judicature Act deal with service of documents during periods of postal interruption.

For service of documents outside Alberta, see rule 11.25 [Real and substantial connection] and rule 11.26 [Method of service outside Alberta].

Part 13: Technical Rules

Division 1 Judge Unable to Continue

When one judge may act in place of or replace another

13.1 One judge may act in place of or replace another judge if

- (a) that other judge dies,
- (b) that other judge ceases to be a judge, or
- (c) it is inconvenient, improper, inappropriate or impossible for that other judge to act.

Information note

Section 7 of the Court of King's Bench Act also provides for a judge to give judgment in a case fully heard by him or her for up to 3 months after ceasing to hold office. Section 7 reads:

Judgment by former judge

7 If a judge ceases to hold office without giving a judgment in any matter that was fully heard by him or her, the judge may, within 3 months after ceasing to hold office, give judgment in that matter as if the judge were still a judge of the Court and that judgment has the same effect as though given by a judge of the Court.

Section 18(3) of the Interpretation Act may also be applicable; it reads:

(3) If an enactment provides that a proceeding, matter or thing is to be done by or before a judge, the proceeding, matter or thing, if properly commenced before a judge, may be continued or completed before any other judge of the same court.

Division 2 Calculating Time

Application of these rules for calculating time

13.2 This Division describes how to calculate periods of time and applies to

- (a) these rules, and
- (b) judgments and orders.

Information note

The convention used in these rules is that

- time periods of less than one month are expressed in days and in multiples of 5, 10 or 20 days

- longer time periods are expressed in months or years.

Counting days

13.3 When counting to or from an event or activity in days, the date on which the event or activity occurs is not counted.

Information note

The basic rule can be illustrated as follows:

Counting forwards

In rule 3.31(3)(a) [Statement of defence] the defendant must file and serve a statement of defence in Alberta within 20 days after service of the statement of claim.

If the effective date of service of the statement of claim is January 4 (the event referred to in rule 13.3 [Counting days]), the statement of defence must be filed and served on or before January 24. The day of the event – the date service of the statement of claim is effected – is not counted.

Counting backwards

Rule 3.9 [Service of originating application and evidence] requires certain documents to be filed and served on parties 10 days or more before the date scheduled for hearing the application.

If the scheduled date is May 15, the materials must be filed and served on or before May 5. The day of the event – the scheduled hearing day – is not counted).

The rule for counting months is different; see rule 13.4 [Counting months and years].

Holidays, Sundays, etc.

Note that where a time period expires on a Sunday, a holiday or a day on which an office or place of business where something must be registered, filed or done is not open for business during its regular business hours, section 22(1) and (2) of the Interpretation Act apply, as follows:

Computation of time

22(1) If in an enactment the time limited for the doing of a thing expires or falls on a holiday, the thing may be done on the day next following that is not a holiday.

(2) If in an enactment the time limited for registration or filing of an instrument, or for the doing of anything, expires or falls on a day on which the office or place in which the instrument or thing is required to be registered, filed or done is not open during its regular hours of business, the instrument or thing may be registered, filed or done on the day next following on which the on which the office or place is open.

Counting months and years

13.4(1) When counting to or from a date in months, time is calculated from the date on which the event or activity occurs in the month to the same-numbered day in a subsequent or previous month, as the case requires.

(2) If the count ends on the 29th, 30th or 31st and there is no same-numbered date in the subsequent or previous month, the count ends on the last day of the subsequent or previous month, as the case requires.

(3) When counting to or from an event or activity in years, time is calculated from the date on which the activity or event occurs in a year to the same-numbered date in a subsequent or previous year, as the case requires.

(4) If the count starts on February 29th and ends in a year that is not a leap year, the count ends on February 28th of that year.

AR 124/2010 s13.4;143/2011

Information note

For example:

- (i) a time period of 3 months counted forward from an event or activity on January 15 ends on April 15;
- (ii) a time period of 3 months counted forward from an event or activity on January 31 ends on April 30;
- (iii) a time period of 3 months counted backwards from an event or activity on April 30 ends on January 30;
- (iv) a time period of one year counted from an event or activity on January 15 of a year ends on January 15 of the next year.

Variation of time periods

13.5(1) Unless the Court otherwise orders or a rule otherwise provides, the parties may agree to extend any time period specified in these rules.

(2) The Court may, unless a rule otherwise provides, stay, extend or shorten a time period that is

- (a) specified in these rules,
- (b) specified in an order or judgment, or
- (c) agreed on by the parties.

(3) The order to extend or shorten a time period may be made whether or not the period has expired.

Information note

Examples of where the rules prohibit time from being extended by the Court or the parties include:

- the time for service of a statement of claim under rule 3.26(3) [Time for service of statement of claim]
- the time for bringing most originating applications for judicial review under rule 3.15(2) [Originating application for judicial review].

Division 3 Pleadings

Pleadings: general requirements

13.6(1) A pleading must be

- (a) succinct, and
- (b) divided into consecutively numbered paragraphs, with dates and numbers expressed in numerals unless words or a combination of words and numerals makes the meaning clearer.

Information note

Very large numbers are better expressed in a combination of numerals and words, for example, $25 billion. The first word of a sentence is usually better expressed as a word than a numeral. For dates, unless the pleading is clear about the convention being used, the month should be stated as a word.

(2) A pleading must state any of the following matters that are relevant:

- (a) the facts on which a party relies, but not the evidence by which the facts are to be proved;
- (b) a matter that defeats, or raises a defence to, a claim of another party;
- (c) the remedy claimed, including
 - (i) the type of damages claimed,
 - (ii) to the extent known, the amount of general and special damages claimed, or if either or both are not known, an estimate of the amount or the total amount that will be claimed,
 - (iii) a statement of any interest claimed, including the basis for the interest, and the method of calculating the interest, and
 - (iv) costs, including any known special costs.

(3) A pleading must also include a statement of any matter on which a party intends to rely that may take another party by surprise, including, without limitation, any of the following matters:

- (a) breach of trust;
- (b) duress;
- (c) estoppel;
- (d) fraud;

- (e) illegality or invalidity of a contract, including the grounds;
- (f) malice or ill will;
- (g) misrepresentation;
- (h) payment;
- (i) performance;
- (j) release;
- (k) undue influence;
- (l) voluntary assumption of risk;
- (m) waiver;
- (n) lack of capacity or authority;
- (o) wilful default;
- (p) tender of payment;
- (q) a limitation period;
- (r) a provision of an enactment.

(4) If the defendant proposes to produce evidence about the plaintiff's reputation in mitigation of damages, the defendant must include in a pleading the facts on which the defendant intends to rely.

Pleadings: other requirements

13.7 A pleading must give particulars of any of the following matters that are included in the pleading:

- (a) breach of trust;
- (b) fraud;
- (c) misrepresentation;
- (d) wilful default;
- (e) undue influence;
- (f) defamation.

Pleadings: other contents

13.8(1) A pleading may include all or any of the following:

- (a) alternative claims or defences;
- (b) a statement of a point of law, and if so, the facts that make the point of law applicable;
- (c) a matter that arose after the commencement document was filed.

(2) A general or other remedy claimed by a party need not be claimed in a pleading.

Defence of tender

13.9 Tender before action may not be pleaded as a defence in an action unless, before the defence is filed, the defendant pays into Court the amount alleged to have been tendered.

Pleadings: specific requirements for replies

13.10 In addition to the other requirements of these rules, in a reply to

- (a) a statement of defence,
- (b) a statement of defence to a counterclaim, or
- (c) a statement of defence to a third party claim,

the reply may only make admissions or respond to matters raised for the first time in the statement of defence.

Information note

The “other requirements” for pleadings are mainly contained in rule 13.6 [Pleadings: general requirements], rule 13.7 [Pleadings: other requirements], rule 13.8 [Pleadings: other contents] and rule 13.13 [Requirements for all filed documents].

Pleadings: specific requirements for class proceedings

13.11(1) The title of a proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act must include the words “Brought under the Class Proceedings Act” immediately below the listed parties

- (a) if it is intended, when the proceeding starts, that a certification order will be sought under the Act, or
- (b) if a certification order is subsequently made in respect of the proceeding under the Act.

(2) If a certification order is refused in respect of the proceeding or the proceeding is decertified, the words “Brought under the Class Proceedings Act” must not be included in the title in any subsequent pleadings and documents filed in the proceeding.

Pleadings: denial of facts

13.12(1) Every fact in a pleading is denied if the fact is not admitted in another pleading filed by a party opposite in interest.

(2) A denial of a fact in a pleading must meet the point of substance.

(5) Every document filed and every exhibit to an affidavit must be legible.

whichever occurs later.

Formal offer to settle

15.11 A formal offer to settle an existing proceeding that was made and neither withdrawn nor accepted prior to the coming into force of these rules remains open for acceptance in accordance with the former rules.

New test or criteria

Place of existing proceeding

15.13 The coming into force of rules 3.3 and 3.4 does not operate to require an existing proceeding to be carried on in a different judicial centre from the judicial centre in which it was commenced.

Schedule C: Tariff of Recoverable Fees

Schedule C: Tariff of Recoverable Fees

Division 1

Division 2: The Tariff

Division 1 Introduction

Framework

1(1) This Schedule specifies the lawyer's fees that may be recovered as costs by one party from another.

(2) Each column of the tariff in Division 2 [The Tariff] gives a dollar amount range for the purpose of determining the lawyer's fee under that column for the work described under each item.

(3) Subject to subrule (4), the dollar range indicates the amount recoverable

- (a) as against the plaintiff, with reference to the amount claimed by the plaintiff,
- (b) as against the defendant, with reference to the amount of the judgment or order against the defendant, or
- (c) in the case of an interlocutory application, as against the person liable to pay the costs with reference to the amount claimed by the plaintiff.

(4) Unless the Court otherwise orders,

- (a) when a remedy is given in a judgment or order other than or in addition to the payment of money, or
- (b) when judgment is given for a defendant in an action in which a remedy other than or in addition to the payment of money is sought, costs must be assessed according to the higher of Column 1 of the tariff in Division 2 [The Tariff], and the scale that would have applied if the other remedy had not been given or sought.

Information note

Note rule 10.42 [Actions within Provincial Court jurisdiction].

What the items in the tariff include

2(1) The description of items in Division 2 [The Tariff] includes, with respect to each item:

- (a) instructions from a client;
- (b) all preparatory work related to the commencement of an action and preparatory work related to an item and the preparation of all records and material;

- (c) the drafting, issuing and service of any required commencement document, pleading, affidavit and related documents;
- (d) attendances;
- (e) correspondence;
- (f) all material read or written;
- (g) if an application is abandoned, all work done in connection with the abandonment;
- (h) other activity undertaken or implied in the item, including necessary or convenient services.

(2) If an item described in the tariff has been started but not completed, or is only partially completed, a proportion of the fee may be allowed.

Information note

For rules related to the application of the tariff see [Lawyer's Charges, Recoverable Costs of Litigation and Sanctions] Division 2 [Recoverable costs of litigation], and in particular rule 10.31 [Court-ordered costs award] and rule 10.41 [Assessment officer's decision].

Application of the tariff

3 The tariff in Division 2 [The Tariff] applies whether the services described in the tariff are provided before, at the time or after these rules come into force.

Division 2 The Tariff

Effective May 1, 2020, this Schedule applies, subject to an agreement or Court Order to the contrary, to all assessable items, whether the activity described in the item happened before or after that date. For the purpose of evaluating an offer under rule 4.29 [Case management judge presiding at summary], costs must be calculated under this Schedule as it existed on the date when the offer was made.

Unless the Court orders otherwise, matters that have no monetary amounts, for example, injunctions, will be dealt with under Column 1. Costs in relation to residential tenancies are not dealt with under any of these columns and are in the discretion of the Court. For monetary amounts within the jurisdiction of the Court of Justice, see rule 10.42 [Actions within Court of Justice jurisdiction].
